Hall-Mills Witness Portrays Wounds.

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Dr. Otto Schultze stood before the jury today in the Hall-Mills murder trial and demonstrated how three bullets ended the life of Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, choir leader, in the darkness of a September night four years ago. In the evening, the tones of the physician, death by murder came into the jury room at Somerville, N. J., and the menace of the state's accusation drew closer to the three defendants. The doctor's report was based on the autopsy performed two weeks ago on the exhumed body, dead and buried more than four years.

Court Scene Bomber.

Five hours of finger print evidence, in the involved phraseology of expert witnesses, had carried the rainy day down to twilight. A whirling wind was driving rain against the windows, hitting by the bare and bowing limbs of the trees outside, and falling leaves were swept by on the gusts. A half-circle of electric lights had been turned on and a single bulb alone full on the wall. The lights were feeble against the growing darkness reaching through the panes, and only added to the gloom.

Witness Averts Eyes.

Three defendants sat motionless. Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the slain man, sat with Mrs. Mills, who sat a single second's glance at the exhibit and had averted her eyes. She had been placed on the witness stand facing directly in her line of vision, she reached quickly into her pocketbook and began to examine documents. She dropped coins, one by one, into the black leather purse; she looked steadily at the rear of the room, then her eyes traveled to the small exhibit. She seemed to be counting the witnesses.

Henry Stevens Indifferent.

Henry Stevens, the third of the accused, had his masklike face turned toward the physician. Mr. Stevens gave to Dr. Schultze no more attention than to other witnesses.

"Another bullet mark was near the right eye," said Dr. Schultze, and the cry again marked the spot for the jury, "and another was in the right temple."

Only four inches separated the bullet from the witness's eye, he said, and he made a quick "yes" before the defense could object to Senator Simpson's intervention.

"Pretty good marksmanship, hey?"

Henry an Arms Expert.

The special prosecutor contends that the three shots were fired by Henry Stevens. He was once an expert for an arms company. But even this suggestion found the defendant merely smiling.

Then the state examined Dr. Schultze on the cut in the throat, which the prosecutor claims was made thirty minutes after death. Dr. Schultze testified that the cut in the throat was made before the state's examination of the cut in the neck, he said it had been made in an emergency decision. Others have reported that two movements of a knife were required to make the slash. Dr. Schultze on page 35, column 1.

PADDOCK ADMITS HE'S ENGAGED TO BEBE DANIELS

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—A long distance telephone call in the wee small hours of the morning from Albany to Hollywood today led to confirmation of the reported engagement of Charles Paddock, famous track athlete, and Bebe Daniels, movie star.

The confirmation came direct from Paddock.

Last night Charlie attended a dinner in his honor here. Afterward the sprinter phoned Bebe in Los Angeles. Before he caught a train for Vermont he was asked:

"Is there any truth in the report you are engaged to Bebe Daniels?"

There was a broad smile, a moment of reluctance, and then Charlie said:

"I'll tell you the truth. We are engaged and have been for some time. We didn't want to make it public because we both have our careers in the movies and wanted to make a success of them."

VULGAR POLICE CRASH IN ON DIPS' LECTURE

Fifteen alleged pickpockets gathered from the far corners of the continent were holding a pep meeting in a handsomely furnished apartment at 5136 Kenmore avenue yesterday when Lieut. Thomas McFarland and Sgt. Crot, Wachholz, and Hosna of the detective bureau walked in and arrested them.

The police reported that Barney Demick of 1433 Taylor street, who knows Chicago, was describing to the workers from out of town how to operate here. He was in the middle of a speech describing the inefficiency of the local police when Lieut. McFarland nabbed him.

Two of those captured, Harry Gold and Harry Martin, are said to have records in New York. Harry Goldberg was tried for picking pockets in Boston less than a week ago.

All will be held for identification by victims.

Watchman Discovers Fire; Gives Alarm; Falls Dead

William Thuder, 25 years old, 1825 North Kessler avenue, a watchman employed at the Grand Avenue Lumber company, dropped dead last night while watching a fire which for a time threatened to destroy the lumber yard at 4837 West Grand avenue. Thuder discovered the flames and turned in an alarm. Shortly after the firemen arrived he fell dead. The fire caused damage of $19,000.

Woman Dies at Concert in Oak Park High School

Miss Ellen Brown, 36 years old, 330 Elm place, Highland Park, was stricken with heart disease last evening while attending a concert in the Oak Park High school auditorium. She died before a physician could be called. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Passman, 1100 Thomas street, Oak Park. She had collapsed in her seat just after the first number had been played.

Police, After Bomb, Guard Ward Workers

Bombing of the headquarters of the 24th Ward Democratic club at 3613 Roosevelt road was followed last night by developments which indicated that political strife on the southwest side had assumed a new phase and that interference of gangsters threatened bloodshed. Among these developments:

1. Stationing of police guards at the homes of the thirty Democratic precinct captains of the 24th ward.

2. A reward of $1,000 offered by the Democratic ward club for information as to the identity of the bombers.

3. Hasty return to the city from French Lick, Ind., of Ald. Jacob M. Arvey, chairman of the executive committee of the organization and principal lieutenant of Senator Trustee Michael Rosenberg, the ward committeeman.

4. Issuance of a statement by Ald. Arvey while en route charging "certain disgruntled politicians" with being responsible for the bombing of the ward club and the recent attempt to blow up Mr. Rosenberg's home.

Eller's Home First Bombed.

The troubles of the southwest side, of which Michael Rosenberg is the dominant figure, and I am chairman of the executive committee. All doubt as to the source of these dastardly outrages are now dispelled and the people of Chicago can now be certain that disgruntled politicians are not willing to submit to the expressed will of the citizenry, but try to do with bombs what they have failed to do with votes.

Rule by Bomb.

"It has come to a pretty pass in this community when members of our organization and their innocent families are in jeopardy of life and limb for exercising their right of franchise. In our ward we asked and received election board and police protection, and the people were allowed to vote their convictions, but now when the election is over the bomb throwers are trying to frighten and kill innocent women and children and I, a chairman of the executive committee of the organization, am forced to offer a reward of $1,000 for confidential information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for these attacks."

—ALD. JACOB M. ARVEY.

assistant chief of detectives may be everything you say," a juror was heard to answer another juror, "but that makes no difference here. The state has proved Salts and Koneil guilty and I am convinced they are guilty."

Points to Witness' Story. In his closing argument Prosecutor O'Brien had called attention to the fact that Lyons had said he had no independent recollection of taking an X-ray picture of Mrs. Salts. The witness testified he was guided by his records which showed he had taken the picture on Aug. 4 and he said he believed the defendant, Salts, was the man who accompanied her.

Chief Stege said Salts has a brother who might easily be mistaken for the defendant, but that could not be told to the jurors.

"If Salts and Koneil were innocent, why didn't they show their alibi to the police when they were arrested?" queried a juror who was favoring a guilty verdict.

Charges Evidence Ruled. "I'll tell you why," said a juror who wanted to acquit the pair. "Any one who knows the inside of the police department knows the cops would have gone to the doctor's office and to Lyons' office and raided them and destroyed the evidence."

"Why do you think Mrs. Brown would have come in here and said she identified Salts if she couldn't identify him?" persisted the juror who was voting guilty.

"You tell me how in hell she could have identified him before the grand jury three days after the murder when he wasn't arrested for three weeks?" the one juror asked.

Protests Defense Evidence. "Why, from their roguish gallery pictures," replied the juror on the minority side.

"Why will you fellows believe witnesses for the defense?" he continued. "It is easy to see they are lying from hell to breakfast and may have been paid for their testimony, and you won't believe reputable witnesses for the state who have no interest in the case."

"They are third degraded and made to tell those stories," answered a juror defending Salts.

"I don't believe the police would force any one to give testimony to

DOHENY AND FALL REACH THE CAPITAL; ARRAIGNED TODAY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Edward L. Doheny, the oil magnate, arrived here today in anticipation of his arraignment tomorrow with Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, before the District Supreme court on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the leasing of the Elk Hills naval oil reserve during the Harding administration.

Mr. Fall arrived yesterday. The arraignment is a technicality preliminary to the actual trial which is scheduled to begin on Nov. 22, and both Doheny and Fall will plead not guilty to the charges which grew out of the senatorial investigation of the Teapot Dome and Elk Hills naval reserve leases and contracts several years ago.

hang an innocent person," declared the juror who wanted a guilty verdict.

"What the hell are Schoemaker and Stege doing in court then?" queried the defending juror. "Why are they so interested in this case that they sit here from beginning to end? Why are they not out stopping crime instead of spending all their time in here trying to hook Salts?"

"I'll tell you," said the man from La Grange. "The police go out and get evidence against crooks and murderers and they bring their evidence here into court and juries let the crooks go. Schoemaker and Stege are here to see that all the evidence is presented, and I for one am going to vote for guilty."

"The police and the bootleggers are in cahoots," said another juror. "Salts must have stepped on somebody's toes and they are trying to get rid of him."

One Juror Holds Out. Along about 9 o'clock the jurors who were holding out for guilty verdicts ceased to argue, except one. It was 11 to 1 then for an hour and then the one dissenter, who said he was convinced beyond all reasonable doubt that the two defendants were guilty.

asked for ten minutes in which to make up his mind whether to acquit or to go along with the majority.

It was then that the eleven were polled as to their fear, and when they said they were not afraid the twelfth juror capitulated.

This was the first trial in any of the 100 or more murders of the last five years which were attributed to the beer war. Many of those hundred murders were blamed on the Salts-McDonnell gang, but the evidence was always lacking.

Under McDonald's Direction. The trial was conducted under the supervision of Special State's Attorney Charles A. McDonald, who was appointed following the murder of Assistant State's Attorney William H. McSwiggan. Mr. McDonald was commissioned by the chief justice of the Criminal court to inquire into the causes of gang murders, particularly those pertaining to the bootleggers.

The witnesses to the Foley murder were taken before the special grand jury three days after Foley's death. At the time the announcement was made that finally there was sufficient evidence to convict Salts. Since that time, however, two of the witnesses disappeared and when Hymie Weiss was killed in North State street it was found he had in his pocket a list of the names and addresses of the jurors as well as the state's witnesses. Charges of jury bribery were made but never proved.

Jury Bailed Dismissed. On Monday Judge Miller was told that Bailiff Nathan C. Bond had been spreading propaganda to the jurors to the effect that Chief Schoemaker and Assistant Chief Stege were bulldozers.

He was relieved of custody of the jury and last night Foreman Bilger said Bond had not influenced him.

Koneil was released immediately after the verdict, but Salts had to stay in jail, due to a government warrant issued July 27 charging him with conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws.

BROTHER SLAYER CLEARED
John Sullivan of 827 West 51st place, who shot and killed his brother, William, in a battle on Oct. 21, was exonerated yesterday by a coroner's jury. It was held that a pistol in the hands of John was accidentally discharged.

Testimony showed that the two men had been drinking together earlier in the evening and had quarreled when John's wife, William then went to his home at 6407 South Morgan street and obtained a shotgun.

CHIEF HITS PUBLIC
Neither the courts nor the Chicago public will support the police in their war on bootleggers, Chief of Police Collins told 300 clubwomen yesterday at a luncheon given in celebration of the raising of $125,000 by the Children's Benefit league at its last tag day.

"Gunmen find a safe refuge in bootlegging," said the chief. "because they feel sure they can escape in the courts with small fines. But the laws are on the books and should be supported whether we believe in them or not."

COREA SALVATION ARMY MEN FIGHT WHITE OFFICERS

(Chicago Tribune From Service.)
TOKIO, Nov. 9.—A Korean Salvation Army officer staged a street fight in Seoul today with American and British officers in a quarrel over the Korean's demand for higher pay. The affair lasted until police reserves came.

A few days ago the Koreans presented a demand to Gen. Booth, who arrived in Korea recently, asking equal pay with foreigners. The pay for a Korean officer now is one yen (50 cents) a day, while the pay for a foreign officer is ten yen ($5) a day. Gen. Booth attempted to make peace. The debate was resumed today, Gen. Booth promising to give the Korean demand "earnest consideration."

The Koreans demanded an immediate reply and became abusive, whereupon the staff captain, Andrews, a British subject, sent an upercut to the Korean leader. The Koreans massed outside the hall, rushing Capt. Andrews. The Americans and Britishers rushed to his help, forming a fighting knot, which held off the Korean crowd.

SILAS H. STRAWN HEADS CHICAGO FOREIGN COUNCIL

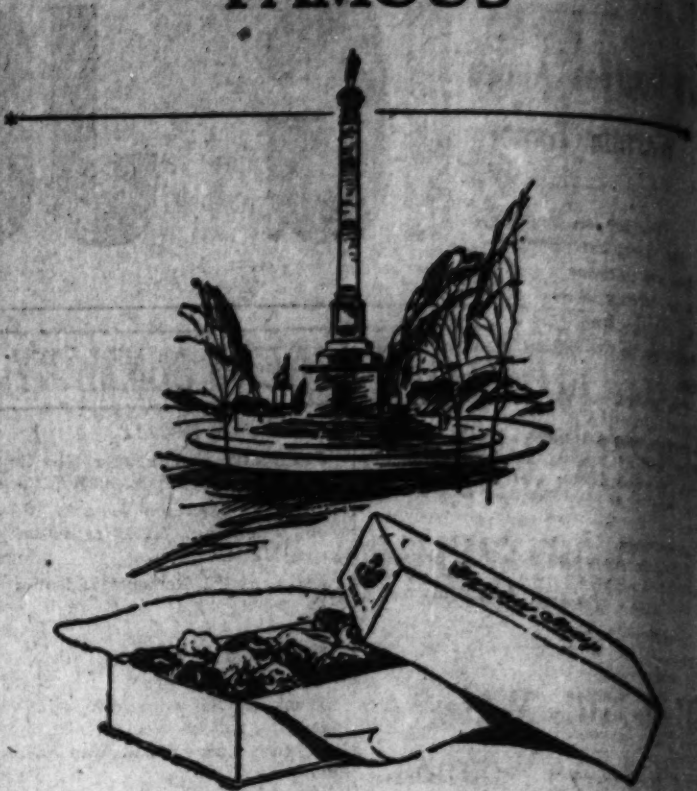

Silas H. Strawn has been elected president of the Chicago council of foreign relations, it was announced yesterday at the council's headquarters, 140 South Dearborn street. He succeeds William C. Boyden, president of the Chicago Bar association.

The council which Mr. Strawn now heads was organized in March, 1922, to promote a better understanding of the foreign policies and foreign relations of the United States.

COLD WAVE IN
WAKE OF SNOW
REACHES CITY20 Degrees Above Due;
Warmer Tomorrow.

But when, still lower temperatures, are to follow today in the wake of the driving snowstorm that swept into Chicago from the west yesterday, according to the official weather forecast.

The lowest official temperature recorded up until 5 p. m. was 23 degrees, and there was a steady decrease thereafter, and at 2 a. m. an unofficial 24 was recorded. The forecasters' opinion was that 20 degrees might be reached by the descending mercury this morning.

Rising temperature, however, is forecast for tomorrow.

Many Ask for Relief.
Considerable suffering due to the unreasonable cold was reported to charitable agencies in the city. Mrs. Anna L. Smith, in the main office of the county agent, said that calls for assistance, especially for fuel, were double what they were on any day preceding since last winter. More than 100 pairs of shoes were distributed during the day.

Miss Mary McDowell, Chicago's commissioner of public welfare, said that the city would have to reopen the municipal lodging houses if no material help occurs in low temperatures. "It has been my contention that the lodging house should be open the year round," she asserted. "Of course, the council must make an appropriation. There are many homeless old men on the streets and it is imperative for them to have a warm place to sleep and warm food and drinks."

Slips Under Car.

A serious injury to Anton Zimmer, 55 years old, 1544 Orchard street, was attributed to the snow. He slipped on the pavement at North avenue and Orchard street and fell under a touring car. His skull was fractured and his face lacerated.

The snow was accompanied by a 40 mile gale. Storm conditions on the lake were said to have been the worst during the year. Mountainous seas were piled up and swept across the breakwaters. On the drives along the north shore spray at times carried across the pavements.

Storm warnings caused several large lake freighters to remain in the lee of the breakwaters. Last night new storm warnings were issued for the great lakes, the forecast being for gales from the northwest, although diminishing somewhat on Michigan.

Brick Wall Crashes.

A 55 foot section of a brick wall at 1015 South Dearborn street was blown over by the gale and several pedestrians narrowly escaped injury. Firemen removed a sign from a cigar store at 740 East 63d street, fearing the wind would tear it away and injure passersby.

Many Autos Stalled.

Charles M. Hayes of the Chicago Motor club announced that the sudden cold snap had resulted in a 300 per cent increase in the number of calls for motor aid to members. He suggested that all motorists take precautions immediately and put antifreeze solutions in their radiators. He added that twenty-five motorists had slipped from the icy roads into ditches and had to have help to get out.

In the loop streets the snow melted almost as fast as it fell, but in the outlying sections a coating of from one to two inches remained on sidewalks and driveways.

Conditions even worse were reported in other sections of the middle west. In Wisconsin the snow reached a depth of five inches. In southern Minnesota snow plows were sent out to clear highways that were buried under drifted snow three feet deep.

A Rock Island passenger train from the west, due in Chicago at 10 a. m. yesterday morning, was stalled in drifts in western Kansas on Monday and was reported nearly twenty hours late last night. Other roads declared that trains were running into Chicago on schedule.

BULLETIN.

Brandywine, Md., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Several houses were destroyed in Cedarville, Md., and four persons severely injured by an apparent continuation of the storm which this afternoon killed fifteen persons in La Plata. The storm cut a fifty yard swath from La Plata to Cedarville, fourteen miles to the northeast.

La Plata, Md., Nov. 9.—(AP)—At least 15 persons, 13 of them children, were killed today when a severe windstorm tore away a schoolhouse from its base and demolished several homes. A number of injured children were rushed to Washington hospitals, two dying on the way.

About thirty children were in the schoolhouse when it was torn to splinters. A man and woman were killed when their home was demolished. An aid was rushed here from several points, several ambulances from Washington hospitals and the Red Cross and the Indian Head, Md., proving grounds brought doctors and nurses.

Cuts Path 500 Feet Wide.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—(U.N.)—Screams of children buried under a pile of debris could be heard above the whine of the wind that wrecked the little schoolhouse at La Plata, Md., this afternoon.

Many of the children were buried and fought desperately to escape, said Harry Guy, a witness of the collapse, who brought several injured children to a Washington hospital.

"I was sitting in the hotel at La Plata when the storm broke," he said. "It was a twister, and swept up from the southwest, cutting a path 500 feet wide. The schoolhouse was right in the center of the twister's path. It was a clapboard building and it collapsed like paper. Screams of children could be heard above the whine of the wind."

COOLIDGE SPEEDING TO KANSAS CITY FOR
ARMISTICE DAY TALK

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—(AP)—President Coolidge traveled again toward the middle west, closing his office to deliver an Armistice day address at the dedication of the Liberty memorial at Kansas City, Mo., where, five years ago, as Vice President, he spoke at the cornerstone ceremony.

In addition to Mrs. Coolidge, the President also had in his private car Secretary Dwight Davis of the war department, who is a resident of Missouri and will speak at the ceremonies; Everett Sanders, secretary to the President, and military and naval aides.

The President is due to arrive in Kansas City Thursday morning and remain there seven hours. He will speak at the exercises at 11 a. m. and then attend a public luncheon at a hotel. He will not return to his desk here until Saturday.

I brought. I picked up as many as I could carry and started."

The hero of the storm was John Marshall Burr, 11, son of Rev. S. O. Burr. The boy was the first to recover after the shock of the storm and sent but the first call for help.

Marines to Rescue.

In response to his call—true to the vision of a youngster—the United States marines came to the rescue. "It was dark and the air felt funny just before the storm," John said. "Some of the kids in the school cried, but the rest of us laughed at them."

"Then it started to blow. "I felt as if one big gust of wind hit one side of the building, and another hit the other."

"The whole thing fell down on us." "I was hit by a piece of wood but it didn't hurt much."

"I crawled out of what had been our school and got to a telephone. I told central: "The school's fallen down. Call everybody."

Crawling from Wreckage.

"I was sitting in my office when the storm blew up," he said. "I heard the schoolhouse crash and ran out. By the time I got to the scene the two teachers were crawling out of the wreckage. I pulled out as many children as I could and then ran through the village to get automobiles to carry them to Washington."

BLAMES MIDWIFE FOR DEATH.

A coroner's jury yesterday recommended that Mrs. Wilhelmina Mohr, 50, 2308 North Ashland avenue, a midwife, be held to the death for a charge of murder. She is charged with performing an illegal operation, fatal to a 22 year old girl.

Japanese Premier Given Coffin,
Age-Old Bid for Hara-Kiri

BY RODERICK MATHESON.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

TOKIO, Nov. 9.—Three men 'attempted to enter the residence of Prime Minister Kijiro Wakatsuki this evening. They carried a coffin. When stopped they left the coffin, saying it was a gift for Mr. Wakatsuki.

The coffin contained three daggers, these being the ancient invitation to commit hara-kiri. The trio was arrested and identified as members of a reactionary association.

Open charges of perjury against the Japanese premier, filed at Osaka, are throwing the politicians into confusion. The case involves the alleged permission by the premier, when home minister, for the transfer of the location of Osaka's red light district, thus greatly enhancing the value of the real estate in the neighborhood of the new vice section. Advance information reached speculators, who it is alleged, paid into the Kenseikai party treasury 200,000 yen (about $100,000). Later the permission for the transfer was withheld and the speculators squealed.

The premier recently testified before an Osaka court. His evidence is now being denounced as false. This is one of several scandals being aired on the eve of the expected dissolution of the diet.

Politics is growing hotter daily and the opposition is attempting to force the immediate resignation of the cabinet.

Baron Tabaka, leader of the main opposition, yesterday was attacked in a dining car while on a political tour by a traveler, who bombarded him with plates, cutlery, and food, and drove him from the coach.

PETERS BLAMES
CODDLING FOR CHICAGO CRIME

Coddling of criminals by reformers is probably the greatest cause of the prevalence of crime in Chicago, Chief Deputy Sheriff Charles W. Peters said yesterday, speaking before the Chicago round table in the Hotel Sherman. Reformers interfere so much with the enforcement of law that the fear of punishment is no longer a deterrent to criminals, he asserted. Mr. Peters spoke in favor of the death penalty, and cited figures showing that murders had increased in districts where capital punishment had been abolished.

TRUCK AND AUTO COLLIDE; WOMAN ON WALK KILLED

Both Drivers Held; Three Others Die in Day.

While standing on the sidewalk at Union avenue and 55th street Mrs. Nellie Walsh, 50 years old, 526 West 53d place, was struck by a truck and fatally injured yesterday. Her death and three others raised the Cook county motor fatality toll to 167 since Jan. 1.

The truck, driven by Theodore Castle, 7254 St. Lawrence avenue, ran on the sidewalk after it collided with an automobile driven by William Rusty of Manhattan, Ill. A wheel of the truck passed over Mrs. Walsh's body and she died while being taken to a hospital. Both drivers were locked up pending the verdict of a coroner's jury this morning.

Injuries Fatal to Man 72.
Injuries received Nov. 3 when he was struck by an automobile near 64th street and Cottage Grove avenue caused the death of James McNell, 72 years old, 6318 Langley avenue. Herman Robbins, 5412 Ingleside avenue, driver of the automobile, was ordered to appear at the inquest today.

Gilmore Hopkins, colored, 43 years old, 4052 South Park way, was fatally injured when he attempted to cross South Park way at 41st street and was knocked down by an automobile driven by Louis Smith, 39 years old, 1415 West 186th street. Hopkins died at Provident hospital. Smith, who is said by police to be partly paralyzed in both legs, was held for the coroner's inquest today.

Visiter, 51, Dies of Hurt.
Hiram Brown, 51 years old of St.

Joseph, Mich., who had been visiting relatives at 1640 Juneway terrace, died at John B. Murphy hospital of injuries received Monday when he was struck by an automobile in front of 1640 Juneway terrace. The car speeded away and the police are searching for the driver.

Pinned under a motor truck which overturned in a ditch near Hammond, Ind., Charles Dawson, 31 years old of Chicago Ridge, was drowned in two feet of water. The truck skidded in snow and overturned. Sam Haaley, the driver escaped.

SMALL TO OPEN NEW LINCOLN PARK DRIVEWAY

"America's Finest Men's Wear Store"

"POCKETBOOK ADVERTISING"

By GEORGE H. CAPPER

THERE are many brilliant writers engaged in journalism—but only one Brisbane.

The Brisbane mind is a mirror that reflects the mood of a Nation. His "Today" column is interesting because of an unusually unique method of attack.

And the Brisbane method of original thinking might well be adopted by our advertising fraternity.

Indeed, blazing one's way thru a wilderness of words, is preferable to "dog-trotting" a beaten trail.

A mild shock to the mentally inert is a bully tonic—the reaction is delightful.

And an advertisement minus the "punch" may be rightfully classified as a "reverse bargain."

So, why not cultivate individuality—originality of style, expression and layout?

And why prate always of "price," when there are so many finer things in every business to talk about?

A barrage directed against the "pocket-book"—when the consumer-mind is functioning 24 hours a day—is a waste of ammunition.

The style of the advertisement you are now reading is a part of our "New Order of Things." It was established three years ago and employed for the first time in announcing the creation of Capper & Capper Stratford Clothes—America's finest clothes for men. It is our "trade-mark."

And, folks, in our opinion, no firm needs a better "trade-mark" than its own advertising.

WAX MANIKIN PICTURES MURDER OF CHOIR SINGER

Hall-Mills Witness Tells How She Died.

Schultz went deeply into this phase of the crime and reported that the tongue, larynx, and windpipe of the murdered woman were "missing" when he made his autopsy on Oct. 26 last. He inferred that they had been cut out.

"These were all organs of singing, weren't they?" again interjected Mr. Simpson, and the witness replied affirmatively.

Cut by Ring.
The surgeon took up a wound he had found on Mrs. Mills' lips. "Might it have been caused by a blow of a first, the cut coming from a ring?" suggested Senator Simpson. Yes, the witness thought this theory plausible.

The witness then told of the examination he made of the body of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, for whose murder the defendants are to be tried later. This autopsy was performed in Brooklyn several days after that on Mrs. Mills. Again Dr. Schultz reported no mutilation, but said he had found evidence, in the form of a small abrasion on the clergyman's right hand, that he had dug in a struggle.

Dr. Schultz also said that whoever fired the single shot that ended the rector's life had stood above him as the trigger was pressed. He admitted that the clergyman might have been kneeling. The shot that killed Mr. Hall and the three that were fired at Mrs. Mills all reached vital spots and any one of them would have been sufficient to cause death.

The state then brought the witness back to Mrs. Mills' cut throat. Dr. Schultz picked up a cross section showing the larynx and respiratory tubes. The red and white of the exhibit shone sinister as he held it beneath the electric light.

Charlotte Leaves Court.
Out in the rows of spectators Charlotte Mills, the 20 year old daughter of the murdered woman, had sat all day, earning a weekly wage reporting the trial of her mother's alleged slayers for a news syndicate. When the wax and papier mache exhibit had been brought in the young woman rose from her seat and hastily left the courtroom. Her father, James Mills, whom the defense inferentially accused of the crime while he was meekly testifying last week, had the seat next to his daughter. Mills is supplementing his father's income by "reporting" the trial for another syndicate.

The husband of the choir leader did not leave his seat. When the gruesome looking exhibit was uncovered Mills stopped chewing gum. As the testimony was unfolded he hitched a leg over the other, rested his crossed forearms on the support of his crossed knees, and began to swing a foot back and forth.

How Pair Were Shot.
Mills seemed especially interested in the surgeon's theories on how the shooting might have taken place. "Can you tell us, Doctor," asked Senator Simpson, "what position Dr. Hall could have been in at the time when the wound was inflicted?"

"Well," said the surgeon, "if both were standing—the assailant and the assailed—the wound could not have been inflicted."

Dr. Schultz then went on to say that "if Dr. Hall had a revolver in his hand and somebody was struggling with him and his arm was thrust up this way—"

Here the doctor raised his right hand and held an imaginary weapon pointing toward the side of his head. "He might have been shot that way."

Admits His Surmises.
Cross-examining Dr. Schultz, the defense attorney brought out that the surgeon did not know how the crime was committed and that his views were merely views. Aside from the medical testimony, the day was taken by the defense in testimony about the calling card of the slain rector, which was picked from a tuft of grass where it had lodged at his feet. The state contends that the card bears the print of Willie Stevens' left index finger. Joseph A. Faurot, formerly deputy police commissioner of New York and the man who introduced the finger print identification system into this country, and Edward A. Schwartz, superintendent of the bureau of records of the Newark police department, were cross-examined severely on this matter.

Senator Simpson said tonight that he expected to call Mrs. Jane Gibson, his chief witness, to the stand either Friday or Saturday. He said this after he had received a report from the Jersey City hospital where she is a patient.

U. S. PROTESTS AS MEXICANS SEIZE AMERICAN'S LAND

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Mexico City, Nov. 9.—The American state department's note protesting against the invasion of the Hacienda El Potrero in the state of Vera Cruz by agrarians was handed to the Mexican foreign office today. This is the largest sugar property in Mexico. It is owned by Mrs. D. H. Lawrence of New York.

The state department's note set forth that the agrarians invaded the property, taking 250 acres of improved land. They were armed and threatened to kill anybody who interfered with their possession.

Chargé d'Affaires H. F. Arthur Schoenfeld, who transmitted the note to the foreign office, asked that military protection be given the property.

B. H. HARRIS, ARCHITECT, IS SUED BY WIFE

Beverly H. Harris, architect, of Washington, D. C., and Chicago, was accused of cruelty yesterday in a suit for divorce filed in the Circuit court by Mrs. Althala Waller Beale Harris, 3525 West Monroe street, through her attorney, James Hamilton Lewis.

Mrs. Harris said that from the time of her marriage in November, 1917, until October, 1924, when her husband left her, he made no effort to support her and she was obliged to support herself on money obtained from her mother and her mother's estate. Mrs. Harris and her husband lived mostly in Washington, she said, and he was often cruel to her. In March, 1918, only a few months after their marriage, he induced his brother-in-law to strike her, she charged. She said she did not want alimony.

VARE'S ELECTION OFFICIALS HELD FOR VOTE FRAUD

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 9.—(P)—Three precinct election officers were today held in $1,000 bail for the grand jury for "serving" candidates other than the Republicans in their returns of last week's election in this city. When their divisions, the Second of the Thirty-sixth ward, was reached in the official count, Judges James G. Gory, don Jr. and Charles B. McMichael, presiding over the election court, could not understand the unanimity of the voters of the division when the returns showed 296 for each of the Republican candidates from W. S. Vare for United States senator down to the lowest office, while the Democratic candidates, headed by William B. Wilson, were not credited with a single vote.

NEW WILL GET REPORTS ON SIX SITES FOR P. O.

Mayor's Committee Will Write Out Views.

Individual written reports on choices for a new postoffice site in Chicago are to be made by members of the mayor's committee, recently appointed, and Postmaster Arthur C. Lueder. These reports will then be forwarded to Postmaster General New in Washington for a decision.

An agreement to this effect was reached at a meeting of the committee at the Union League club yesterday. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Charles Dewey, who came here to investigate the sites, was present.

Six Sites Offered.
"It is not necessary for the members and the postmaster to agree on any one of the six sites that have been offered in the downtown district," Mr. Dewey said. "The postmaster general can decide from the recommendations." Among those present at the meeting were William R. Dawes, president of the Association of Commerce; W. R. Abbott, president of the Commercial club, and Postmaster Lueder. The treasury department, on Nov. 1, made public the fact that nine sites in all had been offered the government for the new postoffice, and that prices ranged from $100,000 to nearly $5,000,000. None of the sites was complete, the offers all stipulating that other pieces of property nearby would have to be purchased separately.

Favored by Postal Chiefs.
At that time it was stated that no offers had been made of the two blocks between the Union and the Northwest-ern stations, on the near west side, which is considered the best site by postal officials.

It was also made plain by the treasury department that the offer is not closed to offers of other property. It is considered unlikely, however, that any property outside of the territory bounded by Michigan avenue, Madison, Halsted, and Polk streets will be considered by the government.

Wood Takes Over Duties of Philippine Control Board
MANILA, P. I., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Gov. ernor General Leonard Wood today issued an executive order announcing that hereafter the duties and powers heretofore exercised by the board of control will be exercised only by the governor general. The board of control is comprised of the governor general, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of the insular legislature.

PRISON PROBLEM LEAGUE OFFICIAL, $8,000 MISSING

Chauncey J. Stillman, slender, white haired treasurer of the Illinois Prison Problem league, is missing. And $8,000 of the organization's funds also are missing. Most of the sum was gathered, so it was said, to assist Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who one time said he had discovered the north pole, out of the Leavenworth penitentiary.

Yesterday the league headquarters, at 115 South Dearborn street, were empty. The October rent was unpaid. Detectives were searching for Stillman with warrants charging that he had operated a confidence game. Last summer, when Stillman was most active in trying to obtain funds. It was said it was to help Doc Cook escape lesser punishment for tampering with bump oil wells and the United States mails. Six high-powered telephone salesmen were engaged to work on likely prospects.

It is charged that the salesmen represented themselves as "Judge McClellan" when they told their story of Dr. Cook. Stillman also has a large number of testimonials which he said were signed by prominent Chicagoans. "Mother" Runyan of St. Louis, president of the league, said yesterday that Stillman had had full charge of the funds.

INDIAN RECORDS INTRODUCED INTO LAKE LEVEL SUIT

Continental Divide Once
Near Kedzie Avenue.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Hundreds of maps, two of which were drawn by Father Marquette, the Jesuit missionary and explorer in the seventeenth century, were introduced today before Charles Evans Hughes, special master for the Supreme court in the lake levels controversy, as proof that an actual water diversion exists at Chicago and that the historic continental divide between the St. Lawrence and Mississippi river systems is located in that city.

The maps, one of which had been drawn by the Blackhawk Indians in 1818, were produced by Dr. James Walter Goldthwaite, professor of geology at Dartmouth and a former instructor at Northwestern university. He appeared as a witness for six lake states who are seeking an order enjoining the further diversion of Lake Michigan water at Chicago for any purpose.

Kedzie Avenue the Location.
Appearing as an expert witness, Dr. Goldthwaite asserted that his studies of the great lakes region, together with the examination of hundreds of maps and documents and the journal of Father Marquette, had convinced him that within historic times the natural divide between the St. Lawrence and Mississippi water sheds was between the head of the Chicago river and Mud lake, a tributary of the Des Plaines river system.

Mr. Goldthwaite placed the continental divide at Kedzie avenue, near the bridge. At this point, he said, the water to the west naturally would flow to the Mississippi and that on the east to Lake Michigan.

The geologist said that from time immemorial the flood waters of the Des Plaines river had at various times overflowed and run off into Lake Michigan. He stated that naturally the waters of the Chicago and Calumet rivers would flow into Lake Michigan, but that artificial changes had reversed the currents and not only caused waters that should have flowed into Lake Michigan to be diverted into the Mississippi water shed but had diverted water from Lake Michigan itself.

Not Denied by Chicago.
While it has not been denied by counsel for the Chicago sanitary district and the state of Illinois, the defendants in the suits brought by Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, and New York that a water diversion now exists at Chicago, the complainant states introduced the testimony in order to have legal proof on the record which will be turned over to the Supreme court by Mr. Hughes.

Dr. Goldthwaite, an almost white-headed, middle aged professor, told Mr. Hughes that he had searched college libraries, the archives of the war department, the library of congress, and the journals of early explorers for the documentary evidence he produced today.

He said that he had worked summers on state and federal surveys in Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois and had made surveys in Canada from 1908 to 1915.

rose so high that part of the overflow ran off into the Chicago river and thence to Lake Michigan.

Dr. Goldthwaite admitted that the earliest map made by Marquette showed a continuing line running from the Illinois river to Lake Michigan, indicating that the explorer had made the journey without making a portage.

THE TRIBUNE'S PLATFORM FOR METROPOLITAN CHICAGO

1. Make Chicago the First City in the World.
2. Start Building a Subway.
3. Electrify the Railroads.
4. Abolish the Smoke Pail.
5. Build Safe Streets and Highways.
6. Re-establish Constitutional Representation.

CONTROL OF TRACTION.

Four Chicago bankers told the traction committee of the state legislature that they thought more of state control than of home rule. They were John J. Mitchell, George M. Reynolds, George Woodruff, and Ralph Van Vechten. They also were for the indeterminate franchise under state control. The legislative committee is studying the indeterminate franchise.

Mr. Mitchell said he favored state control rather than city control because he thought a state commission would be better fitted and less tainted with politics. The present state board is the Illinois commerce commission. Until recently its chairman was Frank Smith, senator elect for Illinois. The aloofness of the board under Mr. Smith from politics for Mr. Smith probably was not in Mr. Mitchell's mind when he reached his conclusion.

A public utility is no longer an intra-city service exclusively. Even Chicago's municipal water system extends outside the city limits.

The electric utilities have an economic range outside the city and traction cannot be limited to the city boundaries. The city has a stake in improving its connections not only with adjoining towns within the state but with towns in other states. The metropolitan area is not contained in local political divisions and political control has not been made to square with economic requirements. The Chicago metropolitan area extends into the neighboring states and the city boundaries do not contain or represent it.

Mr. Mitchell discussed political personnel as containing the reason for preferring state control. He was asked if he regarded Mayor Dever as a good mayor. He said he did. If he was asked what he thought of the governor the question and reply were not published.

When the state had Lowden for governor and Thompson for mayor the case was reversed. It may be reversed again, but we cannot take much stock in the idea that the chances of Illinois having a good administration are better than the chances of Chicago having good local government. The odds at present seem all the other way. Chicago is doing cleaner, voting than down state Illinois is doing. The city is showing more regard for the political deencies and for honesty in office than the country districts are showing. There are enough weak spots in the city, but there are also many important offices administered to the credit of the voters who made the choice and of the men who were chosen.

Illinois as a state is regarded with considerable contempt by other states which are not themselves always the clean children of the family. This state is in a group of some half dozen which have made particularly bad reputations and Illinois has persisted in its conduct in spite of Chicago's efforts to get rid of the bad reputation by voting out the causes of it.

State control of public utilities has come from such sources in Illinois and until there is a house cleaning it will continue to come from them. A reason for state control of public utilities is not found in state politics now and it requires considerable optimism to think that it will be found there soon.

That is a detriment to a consideration of utilities from the economic viewpoint. Chicago has further a political disability in the legislature. It is not represented there as the constitution provides that it shall be. It can be whipsawed in bills because it lacks the votes to which it is entitled. Ripper legislation can be passed and some has been. The city will be in luck if on this traction question it does not get some more from the next legislature.

It may be conceded that the city has not shown any ability to create and put over a sound traction policy. If it can do this it cannot get by with it. It has shown more lethargy and less hope month by month as the surface line franchises approach their end.

This may result in a traction settlement handed to the city by Springfield and that settlement may prove that control of utilities by the state in its present form leaves out about everything to be desired. When the case as presented is that the superior character of state government would be a protection to Chicago citizens in the use of their utilities we are desirous of considerable further argument and proof.

KEEPING THE EMPIRE INTACT.

The British had word at their imperial conference recently in London that the American state department is roused by a problem of conduct. Canada has given notice that it is considering sending a minister plenipotentiary to Washington. The Irish Free State has a representative there. South Africa has been dealing directly with the American consul general, who does not know what to do about it.

The Ward McAllisters in Washington evidently are distressed to observe that the American state department might break up the British empire and with it the most pleasant aristocracy in the world by recognizing the dominions as independent in international affairs. The English probably will not go further than persuasion, backed by hospitality, in dealing with the growth of independence in the dominions. The colonials in London were given a show view of the British fleet. That is a part of the persuasiveness and hospitality. The fleet is available for the purposes of the empire, not to keep the family together if a son wants to depart, but to keep outsiders off the premises. It is a good argument for maintaining the family circle.

Our state department would regret if any independent act it injured the empire. The principal glamour in world affairs in British and our diplomacy would be saddened socially by anything which substituted Canadian, Australian, African, Irish, and New Zealand for the imperial group. In history the American states are the lost colonies, but in diplomacy they can be found almost any time they are needed.

THE METER DISPUTE.

The Plumbers' union, it is charged, is forcing its members to loaf on the job of installing water meters in Chicago. A man is allowed to get only one meter a day, it is asserted, although if they wanted to the plumbers could accomplish a good deal more. The plumbers are paid $12 a day by the city.

The lack of progress has led the commissioner of public works to request an additional $5,400, a month to pay the wages of fifteen more plumbers. The added expense to the city is considerable and unnecessary, the allegation regarding loafing is true, but the trouble goes even deeper than that. What is to prevent a larger force from loafing more earnestly, with the result that the city will pay more to the plumbers but get no more work done?

The delay in meter installation can have most serious consequences for the community. The federal government more than a year ago permitted Chicago to divert $500 cubic feet of water from Lake Michigan upon the city's promise to install 350,000 water meters in the next ten years. The program called for the installation of 36,000 meters in the first year, but thus far only 8,000 have been set. If Chicago does not keep pace with the program the diversion may be stopped, with appalling consequences so far as the health of the community is concerned.

The spokesman for the Plumbers' union has denied the allegation of loafing, but no one seems to be disputing the fact that a jurisdictional fight between the unions of plumbers and meter setters delayed progress for months. We hope this federal government, which obliged the city to agree to install meters, can also prosecute those who may be preventing the city from keeping the bargain.

FOR A TRULY ROUMANIAN WELCOME.

We had hoped that Chicago would stand out among American cities as the only one capable of entertaining a queen without spilling the soup on her or the burghers, but things appear to be going from bad to worse. The ladies are practicing curtsies and learning to walk out backwards, and the gentlemen, with the possible exception of the mayor, are working on hand-kissing. When the queen gets here, we shall do our utmost to convince her that our manners and customs are those of continental Europe, but for lack of practice we shall only succeed in behaving more like European villagers.

This is the only country in the civilized world where people think that hospitality requires the host to adopt the manners and customs of the guest. When Americans are received at the British court the king does not shove his whiskers and he does not say "Pleased to meet you." Sheikhs in the desert do not buy derby hats and two-pants suits in which to receive distinguished American visitors. The only place where our method of entertainment is commonly practiced is the African jungle. There you will find the umbrella and the plug hat adorning the reception committee to make the visitors feel at home.

TEARING DOWN THE FLAG.

In Port Huron, Mich., when they dedicate the Methodist church's new flagpole on Armistice day, tear gas bombs will be on hand and officers of the American Legion, in attendance, will wear loaded sidearms. The trouble is that the flagpole was presented to the church by a Jew and is to be dedicated by an Irish Catholic churchman. Threats were made to the church's minister as soon as the memorial plans were announced; the minister's wife was intimidated; finally, the objectors wrecked the minister's study.

The affair is an example of ignorant intolerance. To most of us, the gift of a flagpole to a Christian church by a Jew, and the selection by a Methodist minister of a Roman Catholic priest as a speaker, bespeak a generous, patriotic fellowship, admirable and exemplary. What more fitting than that a ceremony commemorative of a national union of all creeds should be shared in by all creeds? A small, out of the way ceremony it would have been. Had all gone smoothly, only those immediately concerned would have known anything about it. But it epitomized, nevertheless, a principle of tolerance and unity worthy of emulation in more important phases and better known communities.

It has not been discovered who the plotters are. Their activities have the earmarks of the Ku Klux Klan, but they may be mere stragglers, unorganized, equal in savage brutishness, but as yet not dangerously organized. Whoever they are, they are too uncouth to realize that they are threatening the safety and sanctity of the national emblem with its thirteen stripes side by side and its union of forty-eight stars, instead of protecting it.

Editorial of the Day

OAK PARK VOTES WET.

[The Oak Parkers.] Oak Park, which has long been regarded as a village that votes no and drinks yes on the prohibition question, did a flip-flop at Tuesday's election, and it looks as though the municipality voted wet by about 1,000 votes. Students of the liquor question will find interesting survey material if they attempt to get the real reason for this leaning toward modification.

With some forty churches in the village limits, and thousands of church members who really vote conscientiously, this thousand or so majority for modification of the Volstead law is something to think about. Reform leaders who do not think beyond the pay check will probably say that Oak Park is going to the bow-wow, but it isn't.

Oak Parkers live next door to Chicago. They daily see what prohibition has done to one of the world's greatest cities. They look at the corruption which is the offspring of a union between politics and bootlegging. They live next door to a village where liquor can be bought openly over the bar. They live next door to another village where crime and booze have made that village's name a national byword.

It is possible that Oak Park voters used their brains in voting Tuesday. With the many first rate reputations to the success of the Volstead act at hand such a surmise is as good as any in trying to smoke out the reasons. It is also possible that Oak Park voters have come to the conclusion that a sensible campaign of temperance is the forerunner of a prohibition act that people really want and will help to enforce.

How to Keep Well. By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit, or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitation and where a stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Evans will not make a diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

SCARLET FEVER NOW A MILD DISEASE.

SCARLET fever is becoming a very mild disease. Dr. Pope made a study of scarlet fever in Providence which showed the disease to be as prevalent as it was forty years ago, but it is rarely fatal now. In 1885 it caused one-eighth of the deaths from all causes. It now causes one three-hundredth of the deaths. When we consider that the death rate from all causes has been cut in two in that period, we can understand how few deaths there now are from scarlet fever. But there has been no diminution in the number of cases of the disease. In other words, the child that is rarely fatal now is as prevalent as it was forty years ago.

In 1885 there were 40 deaths from scarlet fever for every 100,000 population. The rate is now 5 instead of 40. Dr. Pope says the other large cities have experienced about the same improvement. Six years is the age of maximum prevalence of the disease. Seventy-five per cent of the cases occur in children under 10, and 90 per cent in children under 15 years of age. The disease is most fatal when it occurs in babies under 1 year of age. Fortunately, few babies contract the disease.

Every mother should try to keep her children from having scarlet fever. But if she has a smacking notion that she is willing for them to have it some time or other, let her put the experience of as long as possible. The disease is very fatal when it occurs in babyhood. The greatest number of deaths is among children 3 years old. Older children stand a better chance for recovery. If it can be put off until the child is 4 years old, the chance of recovery will be fine. If it does not get the child until he is, say, 15 years old, he will not be very sick. In all probability, every year that the mother succeeds in postponing the attack represents just that much gain for her child.

We now have antitoxins for scarlet fever. In suitable cases the action of scarlet fever antitoxin is as magical as that of diphtheria antitoxin. A very sick child this morning; a dose of antitoxin this noon; a comfortable, happy.

BETTER EMPLOY ATTEMPT.
Chicago, Nov. 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I would like to make my will, making my wife the beneficiary of all my belongings after my death. You please give me an idea of the correct form.

You can purchase a printed form from any stationer, but we advise you to employ an attorney to draw and execute of so important a document.

TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT.

MUST OBEY CITY ORDINANCES.
Chicago, Nov. 2.—[Friend of the People.]—This is my second request, and I should like some attention paid by the city. The complaint is the disturbance of the removal of ashes and garbage in the 3500 block between Armitage and McLean. Windows on the first floor cannot be opened on account of the wretched condition of the alley. The garbage has not been removed for at least a month.

B. L.
There would be no difficulty in the matter.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

NOVEMBER 10, 1861.

CAIRO. The official account of the battle at Belmont gives the number of dead and missing at much less than first reported. The 7th Iowa met with the heaviest loss, as it was in the thick of the fight. All the field and command companies of the 7th Iowa were wounded. Sixty of the regiment are prisoners at Columbus, and the total killed, wounded, and missing in the regiment, is 160. The 22d Illinois lost 100.

CAIRO. Nothing has been heard from Oak Oglesby's expedition that moved from Bird's Point a few days ago up to Commerce to operate on the back river, and which was reported to have had a battle with Jeff Thompson's rebels. It is somewhat singular that we should not have heard from it by this time.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Nov. 6.—Yesterday was a spirited day in this town because of the election of the capital being held in the absorbing question. Lawrence and Topeka had spent large sums of money here in attempts to capture the prize.

WASHINGTON.—Reports that Gen. Beauregard has been relieved from command of the rebels on the Potomac seems to be well founded. A letter from Richmond states that a strong effort had been made for some days by the people of South Carolina to induce Jeff Davis to detail Beauregard to command the fortifications at Bull's Bay or Port Royal.

NEW YORK.—The steamship Arago will sail for Europe at noon. Among the passengers are Gen. Winfield Scott, recently retired as head of the army, and Thurlow Weed.

CHICAGO.—The meeting called at Bryan hall last night to take measures for the location of the new national army and foundry at Chicago was attended by a large number of our best citizens. The meeting organized by electing Hon. Charles Walker chairman and William Brown and John A. Nichols secretary. William B. Ogden, "Long John" Wentworth, J. N. Arnold, George N. Bates, and others were in the audience. The object of the meeting was to secure the establishment of the Chicago committee of 150 to further the project.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

NOVEMBER 10, 1801.

CHICAGO.—Judge Richard S. Tuthill, realizing the need in Chicago of a rural institution near the city, to care for homeless and neglected boys, has written the directors of the World's fair, asking them to turn over the surplus fair fund, amounting to about $300,000, for such a purpose. At the same time, he points out such action by the directors would be a convalescent child tonight. Magical is the only word to use.

However, we must not be carried away too much by the magic of these cures. In deciding the value of antitoxin by statistics we must bear in mind that children can be immunized against scarlet fever. The great effort that now is to discover just how successful in practice are the vaccines now available.

SOUP MILK GOOD.
Mrs. E. L. writes: I am cured of sour milk good or bad for the health. Is it about the same as buttermilk? I was told that pasteurized milk, when curdled, is not fit for use. Is this true?

1. Why is milk or cream used in making cheese and butter not pasteurized?
2. Would washing the eyes daily in a solution of boracic acid tend to weaken them?
3. No.

BOOKS ON PRE-NATAL CARE.
Mrs. E. L. writes: Where can I obtain free of charge a book on approaching motherhood?

Write to the children's bureau, United States department of labor, Washington, D. C., for "Prenatal Care."
Get a similar booklet from your state health department.

EATING ORANGE PEEL.
Mrs. T. V. L. writes: Seeing the question asked about orange peel in your column recently caused me to ask if candied orange peel is harmful. I boil it and pour the water off three times before adding sugar. I eat quite a lot of it.

REPLY.

Candied orange peel is candy. It has the good and bad qualities of other candies. If you wash most of the oil before candying the peel your product should not be very harmful. The harmful ingredient in orange peel is the aromatic oil.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. R. H. L.

I WENT WALKING WITH A ONE.

I went walking with a one
Now as far from me
As the lovely golden sun,
As the distant sea.

Now I walk alone and say
To each neighbor "Well-a-day,"
Now my love more dear to me
Than was she near to me,
As if I had never seen
The eyes of her, or she'd not been.
And I would fain
Were she to come
Where I take tea
Or enter room
Where I expect her not,
For lovely things one's wearied of
Are lovelier forgot.

DAVID BORTON.

THE REPORTERS are going to have an easy time picking out Queen Marie when the royal train comes to Chicago. She'll be the one on the train.

Too Late! Too Late!

Quick, R. H. L. there is no time to lose! I read in the WGN that there's a new drug called adrenalin that brings people back to life. Quick, rush a barrel out to the Maroon coaches.

DONO MEARA.

Never Heard of Him.

R. H. L.: I wish to suggest some outstanding contributions that should by all means be included in the Lincoln book. I think it is to be a success. They are: "We Coltrich Boys," by Oswald of Wesleyan; "The De Luxe Barber Shop Anthology," by Oswald of Wesleyan; "The Boy Violet," by Oswald of Wesleyan; "How to Make Money, or Betting With the Dice," by Oswald of Wesleyan; "Why Will Bradley Beat?" by Oswald of Wesleyan; "Why On-Eds Wear Flat Hats," by Oswald of Wesleyan. Thank you. OSWALD OF WESLEYAN.

Napoleon, Referring to the British Line at the Battle of Waterloo.

R. H. L.: Will you please have a new cut made for the head of your column? I do not yet know who wrote, said or sung:

Line to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.
The author's name signed to the motto is so blurred I can't make it out. Please inform. Thanks.

JAKEL.

"I'M OFF OF YOU," as the prominent citizen said to Queen Marie's special train.

THE B AND C WANTS TICKETS TO THE BIG GAME.

DEER DICK. This here Mr. Volstead would of done us guys a damn sight more good if he would of put afternoon bridge games out of commission instead of saloons. At yesterday's gabfest the swell Mrs. M. George Bransby (nee Fanny Dob) high hats the bunch about going to the Army and Navy game. When she asks the B and C whether we were attending, she got answer'd like this, "O yes my dear, we wouldn't think of missing it." The funny part is in the Mrs. don't know whether to go to the football or pincock in Wren. I get home she tells me to get 5 good seats down in front as she won't be ritzed by the likes of Fanny. After explaining for an hour as how a million people can't get seats and how the hell does she expect I can, she wants to know why I belong to the Elks and also why I always buy tickets for the Policemen's Benefit. If I can't get a favor in return, then she suggests that maybe her father could do something and when I asked her what the hell kind of a drag her old man could have she tells me he was a constable in their town for 12 years. As I asked her how the Navy guys looked that the soldiers home she tells me to get 5 good seats down in front as she won't be ritzed by the likes of Fanny. YAQUI MEDICINE MEN FIRE DOCTOR AS WARRIORS DIE

Keep "Enchanted Case" of Kidnaped Man.

BY JOHN CORNYN.
(Chicago Tribune From Service.)

GUYMAS, Sonora, Mexico, Nov. 8.—The Yaqui rebels have made impossible a surprise or ambushade by Mexican soldiers. Spies traverse the lowlands, enter Guaymas and mingle among the soldiers and take back news of the movements of the federal troops. Occasionally mysterious individuals enter the heart of the Bacatete mountains to consult the Yaqui leaders.

The Indians distribute typewritten circulars and notices in mining camps and ranches, explaining the nature of their fight with the Mexican government. They stopped a train today on the Corral-Tonichi railway and distributed printed circulars, asking the passengers to favor their fight against the government.

The Indians, well armed and with plenty of ammunition, are selling provisions constantly, especially corn from the ranches in the hills and valleys at the foothills.

Fire Kidnaped Doctor.

Dr. J. M. Gutierrez of California, graduate of medicine and in practice twenty years, who was held captive for some time by the Yaquis, was fired as incompetent. He was conducted to the borders of Yaquiland and told to go.

When kidnaped Dr. Gutierrez had his medicine case, as he had been visiting a patient. Owing to the numerous patients among the Yaquis, because of their scraps with the Mexican federal army, his more important medicines soon were exhausted.

After the airplane raid on Bacatete his patients increased. Several died as a result of shots and burns and the grand spree at the funeral of the dead warriors.

Medicine Men Hold Council.

The medicine men met in council and declared the doctor was no true medicine man, notwithstanding his mysterious black medicine box, so they wiped their hands of him. But the grand

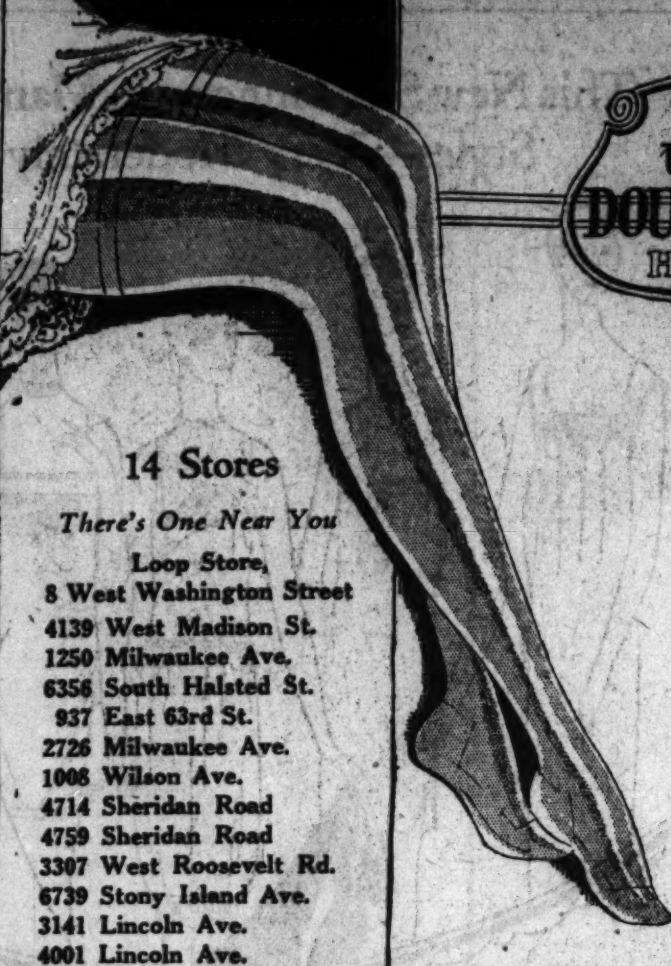

Yaqui medicine man kept the "enchanted medicine box."
The night before Dr. Gutierrez was sent out in disgrace from the Yaqui camp, the Indian medicine man held a grand medicine dance for the cure of the sick and wounded warriors. In the dance the chief medicine man wore Dr. Gutierrez's medicine case fastened about his neck with a deer thong.

Wherever he appears—

The well groomed man possesses the advantage of being pleasing to the eye, always an aid to his perfect poise and dominant bearing.

Deference is shown him as a matter of course. His raiment is quietly distinctive. And because of his inborn appreciation of the truly fine, he knows that the best is always the cheapest in the end.

To the many gentlemen, then, both young and mature, who for years have turned to us for the finest overcoats, we present:

Fabrics loomed by E. de Montagnac and Fils of Sedan, France, at $98.

Isaac Carr of Scotland sends his famed treble Melton at $75.

A careful choice of burly woolens from England and Scotland at $85.

Coats made by American workmen in our most liked styles. The "other side" produces the fabrics, but it takes Americans to produce the tailoring.

ALDERMEN HOLD A KICKER; WON'T DRAW TO QUEEN

Mayor May Miss Chance for Royal Flush.

some Roumanian constituents, is going to go, he believes. He doesn't know what he's going to wear.

Al. Leo M. Brieske (48th), with a Roumanian constituency of 800, plans to be at the mayor's office, at the Blackboarder school, and at the Roumanian church meeting in his ward. He has decided upon neither his costume nor his form of greeting.

While these sentiments were being voiced in the city hall, eager and zealous preparations were going forward, all over the city, for the queen's four day visit to Chicago.

Col. Trygve A. Siqueland, who will serve as aide-de-camp to Queen Marie, yesterday met with representatives of Mrs. Nelson Morris and Arthur Meeker, general and executive chairmen, respectively, of the civic welcoming committee, to plan details of the visit.

Officials at the Drake hotel, where a banquet, reception, ball, and buffet supper are to be held in the queen's honor Saturday night, were seeking a throne chair in which to seat the Roumanian traveler. An acceptable chair was located at the Blackstone hotel and will be conveyed to the Drake, weather permitting, some time very soon.

MARIE'S TALKS CENSORED

On Board Queen Marie's Train En Route to Denver, Nov. 8.—[Special].—A correspondent, like a cat, may look at a queen, but the correspondent may not again if he lets the cat out of the bag if the queen happens to say something to affect politics at home.

So Queen Marie of Roumania is to have a censor in all of her future talks with the press persons aboard the special train which is bearing her east. And that censor is to be a leader of the political party in Roumania to which Queen Marie is opposed.

The censor will be Nicholas Petresco, a member of the People's party, which now is in power in Bucharest, and he was sent with the queen as representative of Gen. Avram, the premier, under instructions to look out for all utterances having any political connection.

Prof. Petresco called the press in and announced that henceforth he would be present at any conferences of the press and the queen, and that he would be the channel through whom news of the royal family would be issued.

In making his announcement M. Petresco was particular to make it plain that neither he nor the premier sought to prevent the queen or any other lady from speaking her mind. He only sought to prevent publication of views which might get back to Roumania and cause embarrassment there.

Uneasy at Informality

Prof. Petresco has evinced uneasiness already over the informality permitted the press in conference with the queen. The correspondents have been received in the queen's car as personal guests rather than as newspaper men. Prince Nicholas and Princess Ileana almost always have joined these gatherings and this has enabled the representatives of the American newspapers to have a close insight into the character and views of the queen and her children.

Prof. Petresco now displaces Maj.

Stanley Washburn, aid to the queen, as the connecting link between the queen and the press.

Two Others to Leave Train

Two changes in personnel aboard the train impend. Miss May Birchhead, publicity representative of Miss Lois Fuller, the former dancer friend of Marie, will be sent to a Denver hospital tomorrow. Miss Birchhead became ill soon after a long questioning by Maj. Washburn and Col. John C. Carroll, who wanted to know if she had tried to persuade the queen to reinstate Sam Hill after he had left the train at Seattle following a difference with Maj. Washburn.

Miss Fuller, with the permission of the queen, will leave the train when it arrives in Chicago and will be sent thence on an ordinary train to New York.

Queen Marie today made the acquaintance of America's first woman governor, Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming. Gov. Ross met the royal train at Casper and accompanied the queen on an automobile drive through the little city. The governor will accompany the party to Denver, which the train will reach early tomorrow. The train is behind schedule because the queen stopped it today and sent the crew back a quarter of a mile to search for a cactus flower which she had seen from the window.

CONSUMPTIVE AID SOCIETY MEETS. The juniors of the Chicago Consumptive Aid society held their annual installation of officers last evening at the Bismarck hotel.

MUSICIAN GETS 90 DAYS; BIGAMY CHARGE DROPPED

Eugene McCarthy, alias Jean Mack, south side entertainer and orchestra leader, was sentenced to 90 days in the house of correction by Judge John Lupe yesterday on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of Vera Tucker, 17 years old, 6097 Augusta street, who was alleged to have been found with him during a raid on the Claridge hotel. Judge Lupe set Nov. 13 for a rehearing on motion by Maxwell Landis, attorney for Mack, and fixed bond at $5,000.

Charges of assault and battery against the musician were dropped when his first wife, Mrs. Ruth McCarthy, 6254 Drexel boulevard, failed to appear to prosecute. A charge of bigamy filed by his second wife, Mrs. Ruth Mack, 4733 Winthrop avenue, also was dropped when Judge Lupe found McCarthy had been divorced from his first wife before the bill was filed.

DURKIN ENTERS JOLIET TO SERVE 35 YEAR TERM

(Picture on back page.) Martin J. Durkin, murderer of Federal Agent Edwin C. Shanahan, yesterday began a 35 year term in the Joliet penitentiary, following the signing of a mittimus by Judge Harry E. Miller. He was received at the institution in the afternoon and immediately underwent the usual routine of new arrivals. Commitments calling for the serving of 15 years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta on charges of transporting stolen autos were lodged against Durkin at the state penitentiary.

STUDENTS GUILTY OF DRINKING SENT HOME BY DRAKE

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 9.—(P)—Indefinite suspension of two students and curtailment of social privileges of two others today wound up a faculty investigation of liquor parties among Drake university students. Karl Elliott and Rex Van Aiken were suspended, while Griffith Kruger and Paul Pearson will be permitted to continue their studies, but will be barred from student activities. Elliott and Van Aiken are prominent in athletics. Pearson is the son of A. J. Pearson, American minister to Finland. Otis McCree, dean of men, issued a statement exonerating all fraternity houses.

ROME, Nov. 9.—On the motion of Augusto Turati, secretary of the Fascist party, 120 members of the "Aventine opposition" today were ousted from the chamber of deputies. They were expelled for absenting themselves following a protest "strike" after the murder of Socialist Deputy Matteotti. The ousted deputies, who now lose their parliamentary immunity, have all taken the precaution of absconding themselves from Rome, and some have crossed the frontier. The most important deputies affected by the expulsion orders are Filippo Turati, chief of the Socialists; Trevis M. Dadda, Socialist of Milan; Eugenio Chini, father of the republican movement and commissioner of the air service during the war; G. Baldesi, former secretary of the Federation of Labor; Sig. Madigirani who represented the Matteotti family in the recent trial; Gen. Benicivenga, recently disciplined; L. Taccac, famous playwright of Naples; Arturo Gabriola, smooth tongued orator of the Socialist party, and Urtio Terenci, gold medalist of the war and a leading Catholic deputy.

Death Penalty Law Passed.

The law for the "security of the state," providing the death penalty for attempts on the life of Premier Mussolini or the royal family, received an overwhelming majority of 238 to 10 in the first reading. It was modified somewhat. The clause providing for the punishment of foreigners for spreading anti-Fascist propaganda in foreign countries was deleted.

Premier Mussolini was given a hearty ovation when he entered the chamber. The members, visitors, and representatives of the press stood up, cheered, and applauded. He spent the voting recess conferring with various ministers.

Premier Mussolini today took over the ministry of the interior. In a telegram to the prefectures throughout the nation, he ordered a systematic application of all laws for the protection of the regime and severe measures to preserve public order, the fullest protection of public funds, and protection of justice for high and low who work in a disciplined manner. (Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

No more Shiny nose!

Here is a chance to prove for yourself that you CAN get rid of that shiny nose which ruins so many complexions. A wonderful new cream called Vauv does it! Put it on in the morning, powder over it—and for hours your nose will keep just that dull, velvety look you want it to have. One girl says: "I have tried nearly every cream on the market, but Vauv is the first one that really does get rid of shiny nose. The longer I use it the less I have to powder. My skin seems to get smoother every day, and blackheads have disappeared."

Try it for yourself. Go to any drug or department store and get a 50c tube of Vauv. Use it for one week as directed. Then, if you are not entirely satisfied, mail me the tube and I'll refund your money and postage.

Be free at last from that worst of all skin blemishes—shiny nose. Jane Morgan, 737 Wrigley Building North, Chicago.

LOST SLEEP AIDS BRAIN, BUT TAKES IT OUT OF BODY

Experiments by Scientists
Made with Students.

New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Loss of sleep promotes rather than decreases the efficiency of the brain, but takes it out on the body, it has been shown by recent experiments in the psychologist's laboratory.

Results of these experiments, started at Yale and carried on at Colgate university, are published in the current issue of Industrial Psychology, Colgate university department of psychology publication. The article, by Donald A. Laird, head of the department, and William Wheeler Jr., of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, tells concisely "what it costs to lose sleep."

Measuring the Effects.

Three young men and fifteen daily difficult multiplication problems were the primary materials of the experiment. Also included were alarm clocks, a stop watch, a mathematical expert, and an apparatus measuring oxygen consumption.

It was found that while each young man did his sums from several seconds to more than a minute more quickly, and with no more mistakes on the shorter sleep ration, he used up from two to three times as much energy in the act.

The young men were first drilled for several weeks in mental multiplication. Problems such as 87253 were solved without the use of pencil and paper, fifteen being solved each day at a single sitting, and solution time and number of errors being noted.

Tested on Shorter Hours.

After the "working level" was reached, so that practice no longer served to improve, the young men were subjected to a week's experiment on eight hours sleep as the "control" period. They were then tested on six hours sleep nightly.

"In all subjects, in fact, the mental work seems to be improved upon partial insomnia," say the writers.

On the other hand, the calorie energy expended when doing the mental work as compared to that used in resting increased enormously with the de-

HOME TOWN FRIENDS CELEBRATE VICTORY OF SMITH AT POLLS

Dwight, Ill., Nov. 9.—(Special).—

Five thousand of Frank L. Smith's friends from his home town and near-by villages turned out in a parade and general jollification here tonight to celebrate his election to the United States senate.

The celebration began with the parade from the senator-elect's home to a large garage where there were congratulatory speeches, a barbecue and dancing.

It was one of the noisiest occasions this little town has ever witnessed. The streets were crowded with spectators operating all sorts of racket making toys and striving to be heard above the music of bands from Kankakee, Fairbury, Pontiac and Morris. Red fire bombs and sky rockets gave color to the march.

The program of speeches was in charge of the Rev. John H. Ryan of Pontiac, chaplain at the state reformatory.

increase in sleep. This energy expenditure was measured by analyzing five minute samples of expired breath, taken from each subject, first when resting, second when doing the sums. The oxygen consumption by the body was thus learned and its increase during the work period over the rest period found to be about three times as great after six hours sleep as after eight.

Man Power Like That of Auto. Answering the question "if the additional energy burned due to the more severe conditions can be made up in food, why should the energy cost be considered?" the writers state:

"The analogy of the automobile will answer this. Using additional fuel, the car can be driven in low gear. The distance is covered, the added cost of gasoline is not enormous—but the machine will not be in good condition after many miles have been traveled."

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLED BY CAR. An unidentified man was struck and instantly killed by a street car yesterday at Peoria and Monroe streets. He appeared to be about 45 years old, five feet 7 inches tall and weighed 155 pounds. His body was taken to the county morgue.

JOHN POWERS, 38 YEARS IN COUNCIL, PLANS TO RETIRE

John Powers, dean of the city council and for thirty-eight years an alderman, will not be a candidate for reelection, he announced yesterday. He will support James Bowler, who was his colleague from the old Nineteenth ward before the fifty ward plan went into effect.

Illness which attacked "Johnny de

Pow" as he is familiarly known on the west side, while on his third honeymoon in France was given as one reason for his decision not to seek a twentieth term. Physicians who attended him in Europe said he would not be able to stand the winter in Chicago. The veteran, who is 74, owns a winter home in Florida, where he expects to go when the finance committee completes its work on the budget.

Chicago Auto Thieves Get Wisconsin Sentence

Elkhorn, Wis., Nov. 9.—(Special).—Cornelius Donagan, John Connor, and Clarence Peterson, members of the gang which disposed of stolen Chicago cars through a "fence" at Delton, were sentenced to from one to five years in the Green Bay reformatory by Judge Roscoe Lane today. Thomas McIntyre, who aided the authorities, was given one to three years.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

Druggists say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

DENEEN GROUP CONSIDER FOUR FOR MAYOR RACE

J. F. Devine, J. A. Kearns,
J. F. Haas Favorites.

Among the Deneen group of Republicans majority talk in informal conferences yesterday centered around four possible candidates. They were: ISAAC N. POWELL, former chief clerk of the election board, former city treasurer, and now a banker. JOHN F. DEVINE, Probate court clerk, who was beaten in the April primaries for county treasurer by George F. Harding, who in turn lost to Martin J. O'Brien, Democrat, by 388 votes on the police returns, both sides now claiming a victory. JAMES A. KEARNS, chief clerk of the Municipal court. JOSEPH F. HAAS, recorder of deeds.

Members of the Deneen camp say that all four of these have demonstrated exceptional prowess as vote getters in past campaigns. Edward B. Linsinger, member of the board of review, is also regarded as a possible starter, but the Deneenites appear to regard him in the second string—they still seem resentful because he ran in the last mayoralty primary after the crowd had signed up for Postmaster Leader.

Democrats wait for Dever. Meanwhile, the Democrats have their ears pinned back for an announcement from Mayor Dever after he finishes his golf sessions at Escalator Springs, as the mayor has been hinting at one term being all he wanted.

Some of the highest highs in Democratic politics declare the mayor will run.

Among the organization workers, especially those from the privilege wards, there is great feeling against the mayor. Yesterday an anonymous letter was mailed to aldermen, officeholders, and others. It set forth a list of members of the Dever administration who were defeated in the recent election. It cites Harry Kohl, chief boiler inspector, defeated for board of review; Frank F. Roeder, purchasing agent, lost for sanitary district trustee; Arthur P. O'Brien, secretary to the mayor, and Carmen Vacco, city sealer, both lost for county commissioner; W. J. Connors, chief of the vehicle bureau, defeated for assessor, and others, including Martin J. O'Brien in the list.

Harding-O'Brien Seesaw. No material change in the county treasurership fight has been made at the end of the second day of the official canvass. Watchers for Mr. Harding said he had gained 101 votes in 211 precincts. A missing precinct in La Grange, they said, gave him 86 plurality. Watchers for Mr. O'Brien announced that a net gain in excess of 300 votes has been made so far in the canvass and that the police plurality of 388 has already been shaved above the 400 mark, with a further discrepancy of over 4,000 votes, which was discovered the day after election, still buried in precincts not yet canvassed.

Discrepancies found in the Twentieth ward—the Miller ward—will bring some precinct judges and clerks before the election board for inquiry.

AURORA ELECTRIC LINE POSTPONES RAISE IN FARES

Officials of the Chicago, Aurora and Elgin railroad last night announced that the scheduled 15 per cent increase in passenger rates will not become effective Friday, but has been postponed until next May. In its original order the Illinois commerce commission set Nov. 15 as the date for the electric lines to increase passenger rates so they would be on a par with those charged by steam railroads. The line petitioned for the raise to meet increased labor and operating costs.

DRY LAW OFFICIAL MERRICK IS GIVEN BIGGER DIXIE POST

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—R. Q. Merrick, assistant administrator in charge of prohibition enforcement in the Chicago district, is to be appointed administrator of a newly created district to include Virginia and North Carolina. It was announced today by Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of liquor law enforcement. Merrick's promotion and the addition to the Chicago district of several downstate Illinois counties which have heretofore been attached to the St. Louis district, are new features.

Merrick's successor in the Chicago district has not been chosen as yet, according to Mr. Andrews, who asserted Merrick's promotion had been "well earned." New Jersey, which "contains so many sources of supply and so many intricate enforcement and permissive problems," is divorced from the eastern Pennsylvania district and given a headquarters office under Ira L. Reeves, appointed administrator today. Pennsylvania is split into two districts, with Pittsburgh and Philadelphia as headquarters, the former the headquarters for western Pennsylvania and West Virginia and the latter city as headquarters for the eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware district. North Carolina, formerly grouped with South Carolina, will be added to the Virginia district under Merrick.

TURN ON 200 NEW BROADWAY-DEVON LIGHTS TONIGHT

Two hundred new lights will be put in service tonight on Broadway from Leland to Devon avenue and on Devon from Broadway to Western avenue. John T. Miller, commissioner of gas and electricity, announced yesterday. The lights will be of 1,000 candle-power each, double the strength of those installed on Ogden avenue and Roosevelt road. The total cost of the new system is $22,000, or about $11 for each lamp.

Film Stars Deny They Peddle Their Names for Ads

Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 9.—[AP]—Stars of the film world seethed with indignation today over the disclosure made in Chicago that a testimonial company professed to be able to produce, for a price, the indorsement of any product by certain screen luminaries. A motion picture magazine which made a hurried check of the first 35 names on a list of 75 said to have been offered its customers by the testimonial dealers, declared that 33 had denied they ever had any dealings with the Chicago company.

POLICE SEIZE WOUNDED MAN. Carlo DeBelle, 34, was taken into custody by the Warren avenue police yesterday. He and two companions forced a taxicab driver to take them to a house out of which he came bleeding. He would not tell how he was hurt.

ENGLAND LAGGING BEHIND EUROPE, BALDWIN AVERS

BY JOHN STEELE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—"Europe is pulling together; it has advanced well on the road to recovery," was the keynote of Prime Minister Baldwin's speech at the historic lord mayor's banquet in Guild hall tonight, which was the scene of glittering splendor, politics, diplomacy, trade, the church, the law and the fighting forces intermingled in the celebration in honor of the new lord mayor, Sir Rowland Blades.

All the empire premiers, with the exception of President Coghane of the Irish free state, attended.

"The prime minister said foreign affairs of today essentially are more satisfactory than at any time since the end of the war."

"The nations of western and central Europe are rapidly recovering, not only from the war, but from its scarcely less felt shattering after effects," he said. "There is a definite, tangible advance towards more settled and stable economic conditions."

The Dawes plan is working satisfactorily, he declared. Mr. Baldwin was definitely optimistic when surveying Europe's progress towards recovery and the expansion of industry and commerce within the empire, but less hopeful were his references to home affairs. Events in the last six months, he asserted, could not all be British with pride.

"Rather, it is cause for deep humiliation," he said. "The general strike will remain forever a stain on the annals of the country."

He did not refer to the present efforts toward a settlement of the coal miners' strike, characterizing the strike as "another monument of human folly."

The question of disarmament was referred to by W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, who said Great Britain had no aggressive intentions.

WAR BRIDE ASKS $50,000 FOR LOSS OF MATE'S LOVE

A French war bride yesterday sued a countrywoman whom she accused of stealing her husband's affections for $50,000 damages.

The wife is Mrs. Suzanne Hawkins, 1055 Sheridan road, head of the millinery department of Mrs. Marguerite, and the defendant is Mrs. Margaret Hume Bolinger, 1234 North State street. The husband is R. B. Hawkins, advertising man.

The complainant says she married Hawkins in France after he was wounded. Last May, Mrs. Bolinger, who had been a French teacher here, became acquainted with him, according to the suit.

UNCLE JOE'S GOOD BREAKFAST, HINT AS TO HIS HEALTH

Danville, Ill., Nov. 9.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon's heart was regular this morning and he ate a good breakfast. This was the answer of his physician, Dr. C. E. Williamson, to rumors that the end was fast approaching for the veteran ex-congressman.

"For me or any one to say just how long he will live," Dr. Williamson commented, "would be impossible. He may live for several months, and he may die. His is the condition of a man sixty years old. Naturally with the passing of time we can see that the end is growing nearer. The only noticeable change, however, is that his appetite is not quite so hearty and he does not sit up so often."

Little Hector wishes they would invite him to supper

There's nothing quite so enticing and mouth-watering as to smell Mickelberry's Sausage sizzling in the skillet. Just stand by and see, if you can resist it. And when it comes to eating, there's no food more welcome at any meal—breakfast, lunch or dinner.

Mickelberry's is fast!

If you wish to be permanently relieved of the common gas troubles, take Badmann's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach troubles and have no effect on the rest of your gas pressure.

This empty, aching feeling at the top of the chest, the belching, the flatulencies, the anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitations will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort.

That drowsy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be relieved by the action of the tablets. Your breathing will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and go numb. You will feel better and go to bed peacefully.

Badmann's Gas Tablets are present as an interference with the circulation. They get the poisons in the yellow bile, the blood, the lymph, the urine, and any other good drug out of the system.

COOLIDGE ASKS NO PARTY LINES FOR TAX DEBATE

Hopes Peaceful Agreement May Come Quickly

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Passage of an emergency tax reduction bill with a minimum of partisan controversy is hoped for by President Coolidge.

Congress, with a view to working out a nonpartisan tax measure, will be encouraged by the President, it was asserted officially at the White House today.

The administration plan for a cut of approximately 12 1/2 per cent in income taxes, payable in 1927 on 1926 earnings, is intended as a suggestion and not as a finally worked out scheme. The President recognizes, it was stated, that the initiation of revenue measures is the prerogative of the house ways and means committee.

It is quite apparent, the President thinks, that if the tax question becomes involved in a political controversy it will be difficult to obtain any relief for the people of the country at this time, owing to the shortness of the session of congress.

The flat percentage cut in individual and corporation income taxes, the President thinks, will give a measure of relief to the corporations whose taxes were increased in the 1925 act to make up for the repeal of the capital stock tax.

12 WREST BARS FROM KENTUCKY JAIL AND ESCAPE

Cattletown, Ky., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Twelve prisoners, one under life sentence for murder, escaped from the Boyd county jail here early today by using a chain to pull bars of a window on the second floor. All still are at large.

The chain was in a cell where an inmate prisoner had been held. There were twenty-three prisoners on the second floor. Jailer Watson said the eleven men who remained notified him of the delivery.

May Win Pardon.
Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—(AP)—C. W. "Tex" Lattimer, former big league baseball player, now serving a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for second degree murder, may have won himself a pardon or other clemency by his heroism during the pitched battle that attended the escape of thirteen convicts yesterday.

Twelve of the men were captured. Lattimer, a trusty, was working in the penitentiary office when the riot alarm sounded. He seized a revolver and joined the guards.

Lattimer was sentenced from Xenia two years ago. He is said to have slain a man who was declared to be out to "get" him. Lattimer was a catcher with the Baltimore (American league) team in 1901, and a member of the Brooklyn Nationals in 1902.

Danish Pastor, Former Chicagoan, Sues Church
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 9.—Pastor John P. Ingenskov, formerly of Chicago, who was unfrocked by Bishop Edgar Blake of Chicago during the investigation of the case of Bishop Anton Bunt, charged with the diversion of church funds, is suing the Methodist Episcopal church for $17,000 damages (about $35,000 indemnity). It is charged Bishop Blake had no right to unfrock the pastor for his refusal to drop charges against Bishop Bunt.

CHICAGO MAKES READY FOR ITS ARMISTICE FETE

Electric Railroads Plan Tribute to Dead.

Throughout Chicago yesterday and in every sphere of the city's life preparations went forward for the observance of Armistice day tomorrow. Celebrations have been planned of such number and extent as to provide continuous festivities in all parts of the city.

From the Field museum came the announcement that the day will be featured with a presentation of patriotic motion pictures in the James Simpson theater, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. One of the films will portray the landing of the Pilgrims.

Electric Lines Plan Tribute.
On the rapid transit lines, the North Shore, South Shore, and Aurora and Elgin railroads, every wheel will stop turning and all other working activities will cease for one minute at 11 o'clock, while the 10,000 employees face east in silent tribute to the war dead.

Squadrons of the drum and bugle corps of Elevated Legion post will be stationed on four overhead bridges in the loop. All rapid transit firemen will synchronize their watches, and at 11 o'clock will sound a blast on their sirens as a signal for all "L" trains to come to a standstill, while the buglers lead and sound taps.

Children of the Junior Red Cross, with a membership of approximately 500,000 in Chicago, will observe the day by presenting bouquets to 150 disabled soldiers who are patients in private homes.

All gold star mothers are invited to participate in the customary services at the Chicago Historical society, which will be held at 11 o'clock under the bronze tablet commemorating the 55 gold star sons of the society. The Rev. William Stockport will deliver the address and Dr. O. L. Schmidt will preside.

Lake Shore post of the American Legion will have a smoker at the Army and Navy club in the evening, at which Col. P. J. H. Farrell, veteran of three wars, will speak on "Reminiscences of Several Wars."

The 132d infantry held its annual observance of Armistice day last night at the armory, 2653 West Madison street, paying tribute to the men from the regiment who lost their lives in the war. Cooperating in the celebration were the Veterans' corps, Forges post of the Legion, and their auxiliaries. A reception and dance followed the parade of the regiment.

Julian and Stephenson formerly were business partners. The grand jury investigation has developed that following Stephenson's conviction and life sentence to the state prison on the charge of murdering Madge Oberholzer, two safety deposit boxes belonging to the former partner were found in the possession of Julian and eventually were taken to Evanston.

Julian did not begin his tale until he had been taken three times before acting Judge Charles S. Witte of the Criminal court and on each occasion ordered to answer the question he propounded him. Assurances given by Judge Witte that his replies would not tend to incriminate him finally loosened Julian's tongue. He spent three hours and twenty minutes in the grand jury room this afternoon and will be back tomorrow for further examination.

Bandits Bind Monks, Loot Rumanian Bishop's Palace

Unipower
A GOULD PRODUCT
AUTOMATIC "A" POWER THAT CANNOT FAIL

Simply click on the set switch and immediately your radio is in full operation! Operation that is free from complicated, bothersome switching—free from uncertain, undependable "A" power. And reception as fine and clear as only rich, continuous "A" power can make it.

That's exactly the kind of performance Unipower makes possible from your set. For these reasons—

Once installed Unipower furnishes "A" power from the light socket and controls "B" power automatically! No matter what set—what "B" power—what power amplifier you use, your entire radio operation is controlled by one switch.

Time-tested, thoroughly proven—Unipower is so constructed that it cannot fail. It was designed by the same power experts who have made Gould Quality famous for the past 30 years. They built Unipower to furnish your radio set the exact "A" power necessary at any time—under any condition.

Consequently, your reception is no longer subject to failure of run-down, worn-out "A" batteries... you need never again be without the use of your set for days—even hours at a time. For you the deadly, periodic cost of "A" battery recharge, or renewal, is completely eliminated... and obviously, with exactly the right "A" power, in exactly the amount required, your set will produce the maximum results expected of it.

Yet Unipower is not expensive—its first cost is practically the last. A slight monthly addition to the electric light bill gives you this never-failing, automatic power with its finer, clearer results. Unipower contains a Balkite charging unit of Gould design. The Gould Storage Battery Company, Inc., 32 West Randolph Street, Chicago.

HYDE PARK RULED OFF PREP GRID IRON MICHIGAN-OHIO PREPARE FOR BATTLE IN THE AIR

80,000 TO SEE
CLASH BETWEEN
BIG 10 LEADERS

Yostmen Face Great Speed Trio.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.
When Ohio State and Michigan clash Saturday at Columbus in the most important football game in the middle west, each will try to win through the air.
It is not likely that either can maintain a sustained straight attack which will result in a score. Both lines are strong. It is hard to figure how a line attack or one directed off the ball and when to run with it. Such an attack is going to throw a lot of responsibility on the Michigan ends, Flora and Osterman, who must smash the interference back and hard and give defensive backs or tackles a chance to nail the runner or hurry the forward passing.
Michigan has a driving offense directed on and off its tackles. Attempts are made occasionally to start the ends, but for the most part the ball carriers drive off their tackles, and once past the scrimmage line cut back through the secondary defense. Coach Yost also has the straight plunging attack, in which Melenda and Gilbert smash straight ahead.
From various types of open formations, complicated by double passes, forward passes are hurled down the field to either Flora or Osterman, while any of the backs may be delegated to take the short passes into flat areas back of the scrimmage line.

Click May Decide It.
If neither eleven is able to score through the air by the straight or running attack, then each will try to get within scoring distance from the field.
Capt. Bennie Friedman is an accurate place kicker, who is dangerous any place inside the forty yard line. Clark, the Ohio quarter back, is an accurate drop kicker and Urdill a reliable place kick performer.
There is little to choose between the two eleven when all positions are at stake. Michigan has an advantage on the ends and at quarter back. The backfields are about equal, while Ohio may be a trifle stronger in the line. Line of Ohio State and Lovett of Michigan are two of the outstanding guards of the conference.
Coach Yost of Michigan and Dr. Wilson of Ohio State have a good idea of each other's style of play. Both eleven have been scouted carefully all season.

Schedules Not Easy.
The winner of this game will have one more battle to play before it can claim the championship. If Michigan is the victor, the Wolverines must win from the fast coming Minnesota eleven at Minneapolis on Nov. 20 to complete its conference schedule. If Ohio State is victorious, the Buckeyes must defeat Illinois at Champaign to remain in the unbeaten class.
It will be homecoming at Columbus, and the big stadium will be taxed to capacity when the teams line up for the first kickoff. According to reports of Ohio State officials, between 80,000 and 90,000 fans will see the game.

YOST PLANS PASSES
Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Rain hampered the Michigan squad in practice today, but Coach Yost sent the men through a hard workout. As the squad leaves for Columbus Thursday, there is only time left for drill tomorrow and possibly Thursday afternoon.
Yost will start the same lineup against the Buckeyes that he did against Wisconsin. The eleven eleven eleven played the veteran mentor by his play against the Badgers.

MORE PASSES
Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Ohio State will use a varied attack against Michigan Saturday in which forward passes will be a feature. Buckeye variety mixed up its plays to keep the scrubs in a long practice session on a muddy field today in which Karow, Grim, Marek, and Eby converted like colts.
Helen Bell, speedy end, will be brought back to the back field often in the Wolverine game to punt, pass, and run the ends. He is the best punter and punter and the fastest man on the Ohio team.

The match was completed in 9 innings, the briefest contest of the tourney.

Northwestern Plans Eastern Game in 1927

Northwestern university authorities are considering an intercollegiate football game with a strong eastern opponent next fall. It was learned yesterday, although athletic officials refused to accept responsibility for what they call a campus rumor.

MAROON FROSH SHOW VARSITY HOW N. U. GAINS Anderson, Rouse Brothers Rejoin Staggmen.

N. U. WORKS IN SNOW

The blizzard that hit the north shore yesterday did not stop the scrimmage of the Northwestern university freshmen and varsity football athletes. The yearlings, who have been studying Chicago's plays for a week, gave the varsity considerable trouble. The line plays of the Maroons, which personally have proved disastrous to the Purple's hope of victory over their foes from the Midway, were hard to stop. Coach Thistlethwaite expects his men will be better prepared for the Maroon line on Saturday.

47,000 to Attend

Taking as his text the lesson of the Purple-Maroon battle twenty-five years ago, when the Purple was a top heavy favorite only to have to work its hardest to snatch a 6 to 5 victory, Thistlethwaite warned his men that a similar surprise may be in store for them. Seats have been reserved for Vice President Charles G. Dawes, and his family; Gov. Len Small and Mayor Dever. Former Purple football captains also will be there and take part in the dedicating ceremony that will give the new $2,000,000 Northwestern stadium, the name of William A. Dwyer, veteran business manager. More than 47,000 will attend.

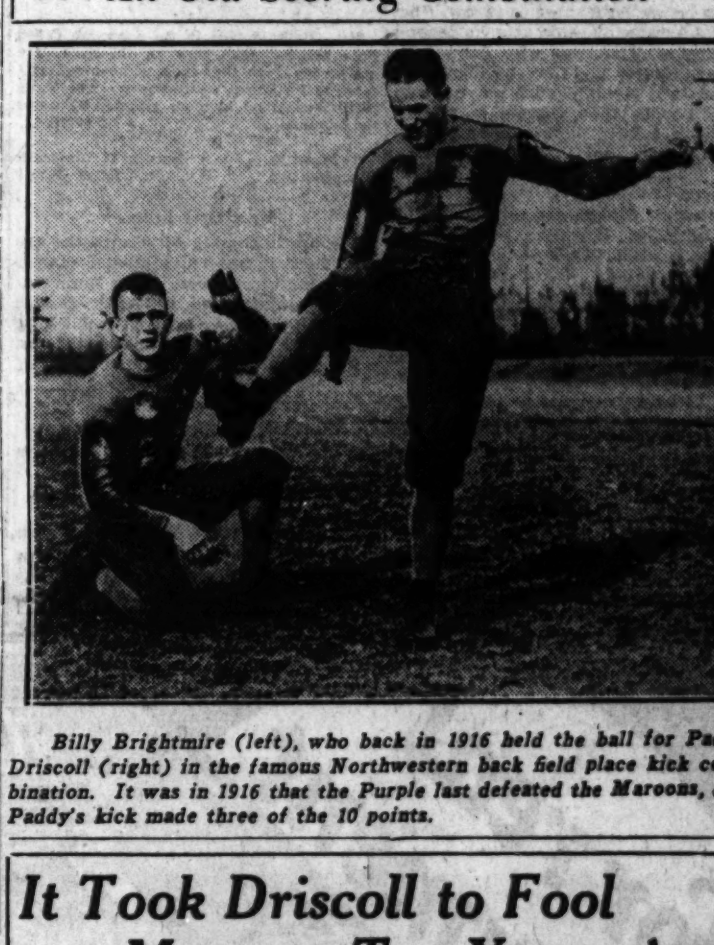

It Took Driscoll to Fool Maroons Ten Years Ago

VAUGHN, FORMER CUB, MAY SEEK REINSTATEMENT

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Big Jim Vaughn, former Chicago Cub pitcher, and for the last five years a member of the Beloit Braves, may seek reinstatement in organized baseball, he stated here today, before leaving for Texas, where he will spend the winter. Vaughn caused a furor in baseball circles when he jumped the Cubs in 1921 after an altercation with Manager Rivers.

NAVY OFFICERS RECEIVE BIDS TO CHICAGO BALL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]—Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—The invitation of the Chicago Association of West Pointers to all navy officers who may be in Chicago on Nov. 27, the date of the Army-Navy football game, to attend the military ball at the Drake hotel, was officially announced by the war department today. The announcement continues that the West Point cadet corps will arrive in Chicago Friday morning, Nov. 26, will be quartered at the La Salle hotel, and will entertain for West Point immediately after the game.

NAVY A. A. GETS 30,000 TICKETS FOR ARMY GAME

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—The Naval Academy Athletic Association completed distribution tonight of 30,000 tickets for the Army-Navy football game at Chicago Nov. 27. This is a much earlier distribution than that for any previous service game. Requests for tickets continue to be received in large numbers, but they are useless, as not a ticket remains in the hands of the officials here.

APPEALS BOARD FINDS EDWARDS, BACK, INELIGIBLE

Reinstates Lindblom in Race.

Hyde Park High school, which staged a coup on Monday with the reinstatement of Lindblom from the semi-final play for the city's high school football championship, endorsed the triumph for only one day.
Hyde Park had questioned the eligibility of a Lindblom player, and its protest had been allowed. Yesterday Hyde Park's own eligibility was tested and found wanting. And this morning finds Lindblom back in the championship race with Hyde Park eliminated.

Edwards Ruled Ineligible.
This change of affairs came when it was found that Lou Edwards, Hyde Park half back, had played while over the 30 year old age limit. Data gathered by Supervisor of Physical Education H. R. Crook substantiated the contention of Tilden High school that Edwards was born Jan. 7, 1906, and the board of appeals, meeting in the office of Director of Physical Education, C. Delaporte, ruled the player ineligible.

School Records Conflict.
When he was questioned Edwards broke out in tears and appeared uncertain as to the correct date of his birth. The last eligibility record of the Hyde Park football team gave 1909 as the year, and there were other conflicting data on the school's records. The board ignored affidavits presented in behalf of Edwards by Lloyd Rohrer, member of the athletic board of control from Hyde Park. One affidavit stated that Edwards was born in 1906, while the other stated that he was born in 1909. This statement was made by a farmer who knew the athlete's parents.

Three May Share Title.
However, if Lindblom wins the city championship, the title would be shared among the three and each would receive a shield emblematic of the championship. These three schools also will divide the central section of receipts from the titular games.
Officials of the league are certain their ruling in the Hyde Park case will be final, but there is a possibility of Principal Loomis of the school appealing to the superintendent of schools, who might overrule the decision if contradictory evidence was presented.

With controversy over, the league is ready to sail on to less stormy waters. Plans have been completed for the semi-final games Saturday, and officials predict the grid season will end with harmony prevailing. Lindblom is scheduled to meet Wendell Phillips at White City park.

MILLER K. O.'S SNYDER IN FIRST WITH UPPERCUT

New Yorker Outclassed
from Start.

Ray Miller, the hard hitting west side featherweight, moved up a notch as a contender for the world's 125 pound championship by knocking out Jackie Snyder of New York in the first round of the main event of the boxing show at the Ashland Boulevard auditorium last night.

K. O. Surprises Fans.
When Snyder rose to his feet he was in bad shape but had sense enough to hold on. Miller shook him off and then landed a short left uppercut to the chin. Snyder went down and was counted out after 2:42 of fighting.

The sudden termination of the fight was a surprise event to Miller's supporters. Ray had been beaten on two previous occasions by the easterner who was looked upon as a dangerous contender for the featherweight championship. Last spring Snyder took a close twelve round decision from the local fighter in New York and in a recent benefit show in Chicago, Miller lost on a foul in the second round. Miller scaled 127½ pounds and Snyder 126½.

In the semi-windup, Harry Forbes of Columbus, O., won by a technical knockout over Bobby Hughes of New Orleans in the fifth round. Hughes was helpless to defend himself, and his seconds threw in the towel. The fighters weighed 118 pounds.

Blatt Wins on Foul.
Ted Blatt, formerly of St. Paul but now of Chicago, won on a foul over Jimmy Hutchinson of New York in the fifth round of the opener. Honors were about even up to the time Jimmy landed a low left hand punch and Referee Tommy Kelly gave the fight to Blatt. They weighed 135 pounds.

Bailor De Shone of Niles, Mich., won the decision over Henry Use of New York in the second preliminary of six rounds. They weighed 132 pounds.

Irish Mickey Gill of San Francisco, who hails from Dublin, Ireland, and Harry Sco Quone, a Chinese 112 pounder from San Francisco, went eight rounds to a draw in the other preliminary.

Only a small crowd turned out, the attendance not being over 1,800, and the receipts about $3,500.

THURNBLAD WINS CUE MATCH.
Art Thurnblad defeated Hughes, 45 to 20, in a 60 minute Interstate Cigar cushion race at Jerome's billiard hall last night.

SMITTY—THE BOYS WHO STAYED AT HOME

In the Wake of the News

PURDUE'S PASSING.
PURDUE came to Dwyer stadium last Saturday heralded as a great forward passing aggregation. The Boiler-makers did not complete a great many of their aerial heaves.

If you were present perhaps you noticed that several times the Purdue receivers were still running down field with their backs toward the passer when the ball left his hand. At other times they were four or five yards short of the ball as it floated over their heads. This did not look so good. But the Purdue receivers were always in the vicinity of the ball. The plays were well conceived and there was no wild tossing, unless possibly in the desperate chances at the end. What, then, was wrong?

There were two things wrong, and Northwestern was responsible for both of them. In the first place, Purdue's passer was hurried by the Purple forwards breaking through. He had to throw before he wanted to throw. Successful forward passing attacks depend on timing. That was why Purdue receivers so often had their backs toward the passer. Again Purple players covering Purdue men eligible to receive passes had been instructed to bump and hamper those men going down field. That was why passes often sailed over their heads.

Hurrying the passer is one of the best defenses. It is possible when one line is superior to the other. That is what happened. Baker in most instances had plenty of time. It has been a football axiom for years that a strong line is the keystone of attack. That has been proved this year in the Big Ten to a greater degree than ever before.

Have You Your Hospital Engaged?
Hester C. S. N. incloses a clipping from a Columbus paper which relates that owing to the "standing room only" sign in Columbus hotels for the Michigan-Ohio State game Saturday one enterprising citizen reserved two hospital rooms for expected guests for Friday and Saturday nights. No, they were not for Benny Friedman or Oosterbaan.

Mathematics of Billiards Lures World's Champion from Engineering Career

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Until he was seventeen years old Erich Hagenlacher, world's 11.3 billiard champion, never tried a shot on the rubber guarded green cloth, and then a casual visit to an exhibition match of the 11.3 champion of Germany started him on the path that led to a world's crown.

The knowledge of angles and the delicacy of touch appealed to his mathematical and mechanically trained mind.

Hagenlacher, who looks less like a billiard player than any of the other first flight players, laughingly discussed his early efforts and his later successes before an exhibition match here yesterday. He's well over six feet tall and lean with the leaness of an athlete.

His father, an engineer of the city waterworks of Stuttgart, where Erich was born 21 years ago, wanted his son to become an engineer, and Erich was a student of a technical high school when he saw his first topnotch billiard player. Incidentally he was goalkeeper of the school's soccer team. His father had no objection to his learning to play billiards; the storm came a year later when young Erich decided to make it his profession.

With typical German thoroughness, Hagenlacher's first move in learning the game was to engage a teacher, and for more than a year he worked under an instructor's eye. Then his improvement became so marked he decided to become a professional billiard player.

When Erich was resumed in 1919 he won the German and Central European championships, which he held until now, though he'll forfeit the German championship as the tournament is on now. He first came to the United States in 1921 and finished last in the international tournament the next year. A year later he was fourth and in 1925 third.

After Edouard Horemans had defeated Schaefer and then lost the title back to Young Jake, Hagenlacher challenged and won the championship. He's held it since. His next match will be with Willie Hoppe in a 1,600 point challenge match in New York, Jan. 4, 5, and 6.

One Cushion Shot Hardest.
The tall champion talks of billiards with an amazing lack of swank. According to him there's nothing to the game except make the shot and keep in position for the next one, which sounds simple. He carries only one cue, a twenty ounce, brass jointed one. He says one cushion shot is the hardest.

His favorite nurse is the end rail, but he admits he often uses the open table nurse "when I make a mistake." He gave a marvelous exhibition of that delicacy of touch in his exhibition yesterday. With the red ball frozen to the side rail on one side of a balk line and the white object ball just out of anchor on the other side of the line, he ran twenty-one points. Each time the cue ball hit the red ball squarely and bounded back, barely grazing but not moving the white object ball. It was amazing billiards.

Before his challenge match with Hoppe, Hagenlacher says he will practice six hours a day for two weeks.

Puck Chasers Plan Amateur Loop Tonight

Plans for a senior amateur ice hockey league will be made tonight when officials of five of the major athletic clubs of the city meet at Spalding's. Representatives from the Chicago Athletic association, Illinois Athletic club, Chicago Yacht club, Lake Shore Athletic club, and Midwest Athletic club will attend the organization meeting. Two other clubs have indicated a desire to join.

Haddock O. K.'s League.
According to tentative plans the league will be composed of six teams and a champion will be determined by a point system. The teams will play after the scheduled games of the Blackhawks, the Chicago National football league team, on the new rink at the Coliseum.

William H. Haddock of Princeton, president of the United States Amateur Hockey association, has announced the organization of the league. Officials of the Blackhawks yesterday announced a break-sale of the season with the St. Patrick's of Toronto. The game will be a benefit test for the Chicago Junior and the ticket sale is being handled by the league.

Play Minneapolis Tonight.
The Blackhawks are training at Minneapolis, where they will play an exhibition game tonight against the Minneapolis team. Saturday night the Hawks play at Duluth. After the encounter they will return to Chicago where they will work out at the Coliseum on Tuesday.

The Cardinals, Chicago team of the American league, also will return to Chicago on Tuesday. The Cardinals are training at Toronto and will start their drill there Sunday.

TIGERS DEMAND UNDERSTANDING WITH HARVARD

Student Paper Resents Lampoon's References.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Declaring it is unnecessary at the cost of Princeton's dignity to preserve the Big Three, the Daily Princetonian today demands an immediate investigation into the athletic relationship of the university with Harvard and Yale and a complete disavowal by Harvard and Yale of the references to the Orange and Black by the Harvard Lampoon.

"When the 'Big Three' was preserved recently, following a suggestion from Harvard athletic authorities that the Princeton-Harvard football game be suspended for 1927 and 1928, the Princetonian was for the most part silent on the matter, but, nevertheless, 'subliminal' the paper says.

"That was some time ago. Since then Harvard and Princeton have had another football game. Since then, also, one of the undergraduate Harvard publications, the Lampoon, has added complications to an already complicated situation through the appearance of its Princeton game number.

A few of our readers had expected in this morning's Princetonian a reply to the Lampoon.

"There will, of course, be no such reply; the Lampoon speaks not for itself, but for its readers, and its humor we have nothing to say, except to inquire whether the periodical reflects, as it purports to do, the sentiments of the majority of Harvard's adherents.

"The main question at issue is the value of the triple agreement, the Big Three.

"Admittedly it is a trivariate; a triumvirate thoroughly worth preserving provided each of the three members can maintain a healthy and sportsmanlike attitude.

"Once again, we doubt that the Princetonian's view is Harvard's, but we shall not feel positive until Harvard itself has disclaimed the insinuations."

Will County Backs Wider Roads Drive

BY J. L. JENKINS.

County lines mean less to the motorist than the fourth dimension, and traffic congestion does not automatically stop at the edge of any political division point, according to C. R. Hubert, chairman of the roads and bridges committee of the Will county board of supervisors. In endorsing the four-county campaign for the immediate widening of all state highways across the Cook county line he announced that pavement widening will be the chief issue in the 1927 building program of Will county and Joliet.

The roads leader, with Will H. Smith of Joliet, superintendent of Will county highways, made an inspection trip over the Dixie highway yesterday at the request of traffic interests in Crest, who are calling for help to widen the famous Dixie pavement leading to Lincoln Fields race track.

Eckersall's Gossip of the Boxers

Tiger Flowers, the world's middleweight champion, who meets Sailor Huffman at the Coliseum on Nov. 22, will be in Chicago on Friday to complete training. Huffman has been in Chicago for ten days and is working every day at Mullen's gymnasium.

Following his bout with Huffman the champion will remain in Chicago to train for his championship match with Mickey Walker, former world's welterweight champion, at the Coliseum on Dec. 3. The match will be staged by Jim Mullen, and Walker will be here two weeks in advance of the contest.

Johanny Hill, the Filipino featherweight, and Don Davis of California yesterday were matched to meet in the main event of Jack O'Rear's show at the Madison Gardens arena on Monday night. They will box ten rounds and weigh 125 pounds at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon. In his last appearance in Chicago Davis boxed a draw with Eddie Shea, the west coast Italian featherweight, while Hill's great fight with Joey Sangor on the west side recently is still being talked about by the fans.

Joe Medill, the popular local 130 pounder, yesterday was operated upon for appendicitis. The operation was performed by Dr. John P. O'Connell, who announced Joe would be able to reenter the ring in about six weeks.

Wisconsin May Legislate Open Beaver Season

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Beaver are becoming so numerous in sections of Wisconsin that it is probable that a bill will be introduced in the next session of the legislature to have an open season for trapping the animals.

The habit of beavers to build dams across streams is raising much havoc and bringing many complaints with the dams that spring up over night, flooding railroad rights of way, highways, fields, and woodlands. It recently cost the state $80 to blow up a dam that resulted in the flooding of a railroad right of way. The dam was rebuilt by the animals in twenty-four hours.

The state conservation commission has placed about twenty game warden in the north woods to protect deer until the opening of the hunting season on Dec. 1. These men report that there are about twice as many deer in Wisconsin as in former years.

With some exceptions, game is plentiful in the state this year. Many grouse are reported in Ashland, Bay field, and Vilas counties. The importation by Minnesota of wild turkeys may result in the birds becoming common in Wisconsin.

James McNaughton, game warden at Superior, reports that he saw a moose in Douglas county in an excursion around his territory.

Squirrels, cotton tails, and snowshoe rabbits are reported plentiful in many sections of the state. Raccoons are also numerous.

In spite of their scarcity this spring, partridges have survived over the open season and are now reported in large numbers in some counties. Game wardens report that few of the birds were shot this year, with the ap peal sent out by Elmer S. Hall, state conservation commissioner, to save the birds because of their diminishing numbers.

The birds are said to have experienced a big hatch, many having nested late. The birds are still reported as scarce in the northern counties, compared with the numbers seen in Marinette, Langlade, Shawano, Clark, and other counties near the central part of the state.

Crane Swimmers Sink Tuley in Dual Meet

Crane Tech defeated Tuley High school in dual swimming meet at Crane's pool yesterday. The seniors won, 23 to 15, and the juniors finished on top, 30 to 15.

N. Y. COMISH PUTS O. K. ON FEATHER TITLE TOURNEY

Tendler and Persson Draw Suspensions.

New York, Nov. 9.—[AP.]—The state athletic commission took steps today to untangle the championship affairs in three divisions, tabled the challenges of title aspirants in two other and handed indefinite suspensions to two widely known boxers, Lew Tendler and Harry Persson, for fouling recent opponents.

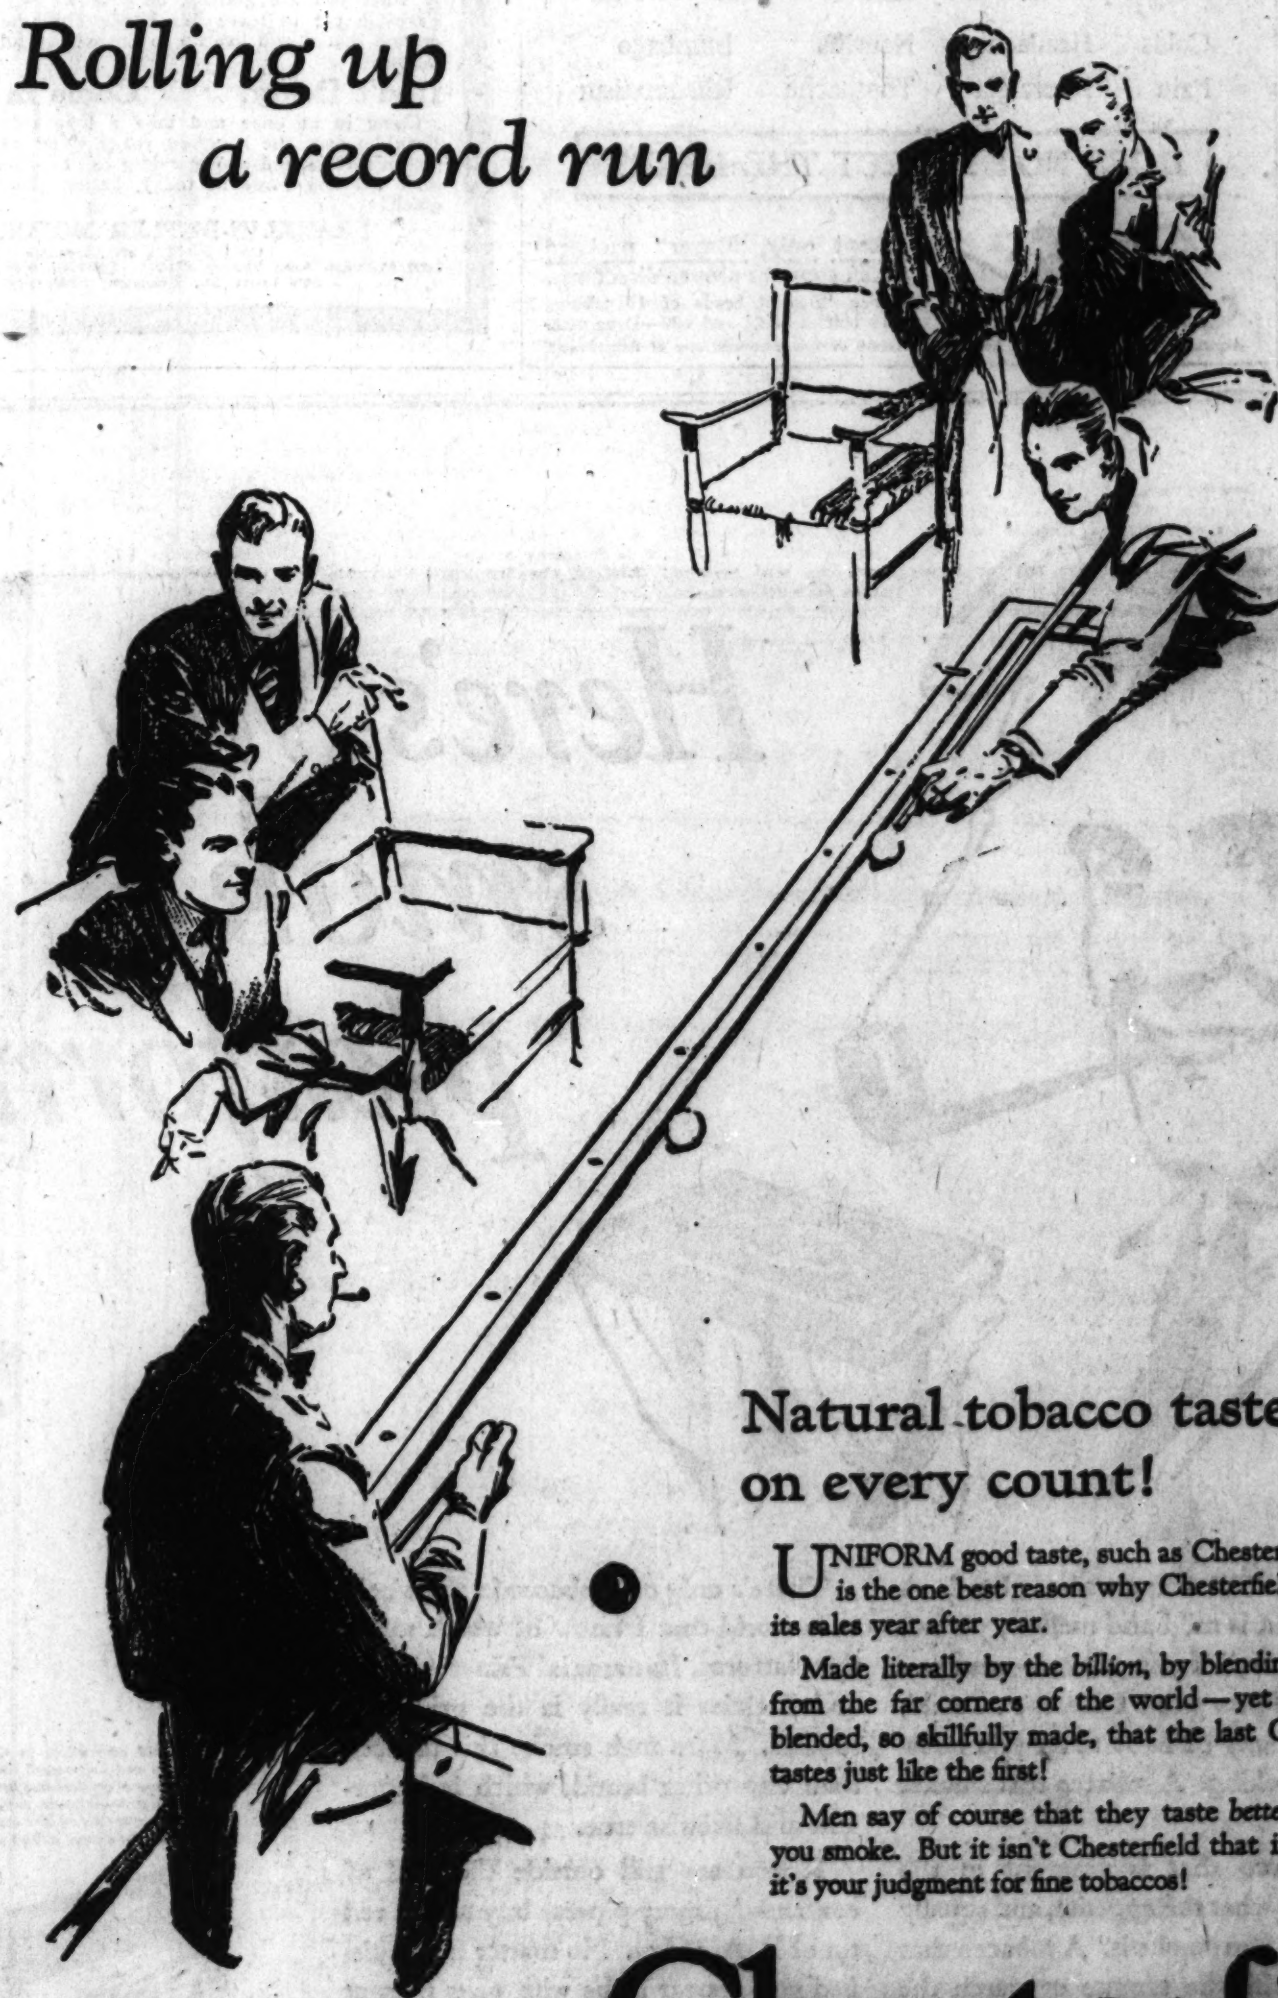

Casting aside its recently announced handoff policy toward the creation of new champions, the commission recommended an elimination program to decide the successor of Louis (Kid) Kaplan as featherweight titleholder. The board suggested that Penny Barr of Philadelphia and Red Chapman of Boston be matched to decide which should meet the survivor of the forthcoming elimination test in 125 pound ranks between Chick Suggs, New Bedford, Mass., Negro, and "Honey Boy" Pinegar of Boston. This bout is scheduled in Boston next Monday.

The commission tossed a barrier in the way of Tex Rickard's proposal to match Elky Clark, British flyweight champion, with Fidel La Barba, world's champion. It was suggested Clark first should be tested against one or two other opponents of his class before meeting La Barba.

Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, the license committee of the board ruled, must defend his world's bantamweight crown against Bushey Graham of Utica, N. Y., without any "tune-up" contests.

The challenge of Joe Dundee of Baltimore for a title match with Pete Latzo, the welterweight king, and if Mike McTigue for a bout with Jack Delany, the light heavyweight title holder, were set aside temporarily.

Pimlico, Md., Nov. 9.—[Special].—No horse this year will be able to duplicate the unique feat of Trystler in 1923 of winning all three of the Pimlico serial weight for age races. H. P. Whitney's Croyden took the first one last week at six furlongs, but was beaten this afternoon by Walter M. Jeffords' Mars, which made a splendid effort over the mile route.

Only three went to the post for the eleventh running of this dash for all ages, and Croyden was the odds-on favorite over Mars and the Glen Riddle farm's Big Blaze.

*Here's my smoke-
platform*

A JIMMY PIPE with an ample bowl. A tobacco that is mild and mellow, yet not "mollycoddle," if you get me—and you do. You know what I mean . . . mild, yet with plenty of body to let you know you are smoking. A tobacco that smokes cool.

A tobacco that is fragrant in the package, to whet the appetite, and equally fragrant as you smoke it. A tobacco that does not bite the tongue or parch the throat. A tobacco so wonderfully satisfying that you are kept busy smoking and reloading, all day long.

There's only one tobacco in the whole wide world that I know of which meets this platform. Its name is "Prince Albert" and I claim it really is the prince of smokes. More men smoke this tobacco than any other brand, which is important and likewise true.

If you are still outside the fold of contented jimmy-pipers, buy a tidy red tin of P. A. today. No matter how satisfied you appear to be with your present brand, try Prince Albert. I promise you a smoke-experience that will be new and delightfully different.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

A black and white photograph of a pack of Prince Albert cigarettes. The pack is dark with a light-colored oval portrait of a man in a suit. Above the portrait, the words 'PRINCE ALBERT' are printed in a large, serif font. Below the portrait, the words 'CRIMINAL CUT' are printed in a bold, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the pack, the words '10 CIGARETTES' are printed in a smaller, sans-serif font. The pack is shown at an angle, with the top edge slightly curved.

WHEAT HOLDS IN NARROW RANGE; CORN IS HIGHER

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

With conflicting reports regarding weather conditions in Argentina and traders disposed to go slow on either side of the wheat market pending further developments in the southern hemisphere, prices held within a range of 10 1/4 to 10 1/2 and closed unchanged to 1/4 lower. December finished at $1.47 1/2 @ $1.48, May $1.44 1/2 @ $1.45, and July $1.38 1/2.

Liquidation in corn was seen in evidence, and while May sold down to 77 1/2 a new low on the crop, short covering brought about an advance of 1/4 to 1/2 from the inside figure, and the finish was 10 1/4 higher with December 70 1/2 @ $1.47, May 79 1/2 @ $1.48, and July 81 1/2 @ $1.49.

More Frost in Argentina. Private cables told of light frosts in the Pampas in Argentina, and the frost of Saturday visited a large portion of the wheat belt in that country, but the extent of the damage as yet cannot be determined. Higher temperatures were reported in the southern section, while in the northern weather was dry. Buenos Aires closed 1/4 lower for the day.

There was a falling off in speculative interest in futures, with some selling of wheat against purchases of corn by locals who were closing spreads.

Unfavorable weather and a scarcity of choice wheat had a strengthening effect on Winnipeg which gained 1/4 for the day. There were claims of around 1,000,000 bu Manitoba sold Monday, not previously reported, with a moderate foreign demand during the day, and sales were finally placed at around 60,000 bu. Ocean freight for forward shipment from Argentina and Russia were quoted as sharply lower.

Wetter Argentine weather was a factor in causing a decline of 1/4 in wheat in Liverpool, and the earlier tone abroad had a little effect here. Marketing of wheat in the Canadian northwest continues on a liberal scale, nearly 4,000,000 bu per day, and well in excess of last year. Deliveries on November contracts at Winnipeg aggregated 185,000 bu.

Corn in Strong Rally.

There was a lack of aggressive liquidation in corn, which has been such a feature of late, and a change in sentiment was noted in some quarters, decreasing receipts and less favorable weather bringing in fair short covering, and also some investment buying, and with the closing of spreads, corn being bought and wheat sold, an upturn was easily attained. There was also some evening up for the government report due after the close on today.

Strength in corn more than offset weather liquidation in oats and with commission houses on the buying side on breaks the undertone was relatively firm. There was exchanging between December and May at 4 1/2 difference. Shipping demand continues slow. Rye was influenced largely by the action of wheat, but trade was light. Germany and Scandinavia were reported as after rye at the seaboard with a few loads sold.

LARD PRICES RALLY

Less selling pressure, and a small increase in the buying, with shorts more disposed to take profits, carried lard prices up to the highest of the day at the last. Net gains of 3/4 were made on the nearby, and 1/2 on distant deliveries. There were cash deliveries of 150,000 lbs. Lard in Liverpool was unchanged to 1/4 lower, and 1,345,500 lbs. of bacon, ribs and bellies were unchanged. Cash business was fair, with some reporting a better call for meat.

Her supplies were larger, and prices closed lower. Arrivals were heaviest at west-end packing points in a long time, exceeding last week and last year. Prices follow:

~but that was years ago*

Here is an eminent banker's picture of conditions - today

I AM going to attempt to view the situation from the standpoint of a salesman facing conditions of a decade ago.

"What was the general situation?"

"There was the business center with its various industries and great varieties of things to be chosen from. There were smaller centers further up and here is what the buyer had to face: If he lived in the country, he probably had to hitch up his horse and drive to town."

"If he wished to come to a center like St. Louis, he had to catch the train at the convenience of the train schedule. If his horse could make an average of seven miles an hour, it was doing first rate. If he wished to come to a small center, after driving in from the country, he might not be able to get just exactly the kind of things he wanted in the local store. His wife might know that the styles were not up to date, but on account of the trouble of catching the train into, say St. Louis, where they could get the things they would rather have, they had to take what was on the local merchant's shelf."

"The improvement of transportation has made of a territory, not a city with sub-centers and a country, but the whole territory a city. Mr. Leutert has brought to you very vividly the close relationship between an outlying territory and a center through the interurban. Transportation has been developed by the railroad to a point where deliveries are immediate. It was very interesting to hear the statement that if an order is received by 9:00 o'clock it can be filled in St. Louis the same day. That is true of shoes, clothes, hats and all of the other commodities in which we are interested. The railroads and the interurbans are delivering those things practically as ordered and when needed. Then again, there are the bus lines. A man can take that bus line a half a mile from his door and come into a center."

".... A man can get into his machine, and just as fast as the speed limit permits, can go to a center and return home in a short space of time. All of these things work together to bring about a great change in conditions the salesman must face."

The foregoing is quoted from an address made on October 1, 1926, before the Sales Managers Bureau by William McChesney Martin, Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, serving the Eighth Federal Reserve District.

Mr. Martin's contrast between the markets of yesterday and today demonstrates in a striking way the development of our own St. Louis market.

Here is the picture:

The 49th State with its radius of 150 miles, as against the limited markets of horse-and-buggy days.

Railroads, interurbans, highways, busses, bringing The 49th State towns to the St. Louis City Limits.

And what does this outlying territory in The 49th State offer?

4,206,516 people.... Five times as many as in St. Louis.

$11,666,375,000 purchasing power to supplement St. Louis' $8,949,726,000. And we know that more than a million of these people are coming into St. Louis every month on shopping trips and pleasure trips.

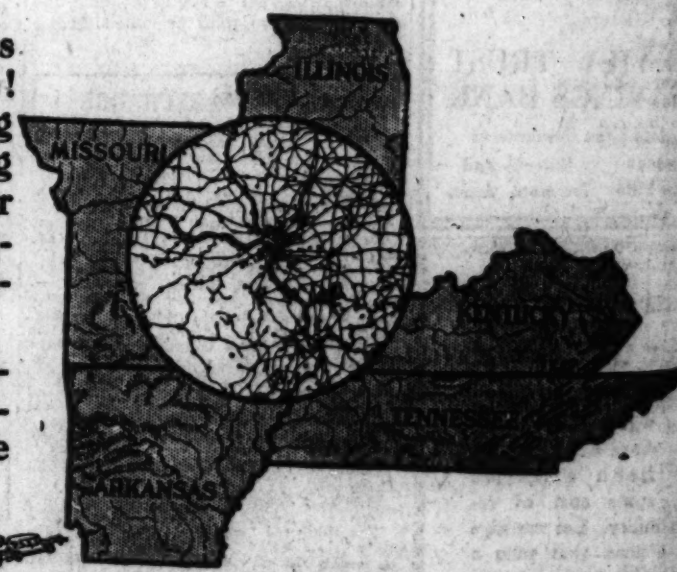

What wonder that St. Louis merchants are developing this out-of-town trade! Here is The Globe-Democrat, reaching out, as no other medium can, to bring this trade to St. Louis.... A newspaper which has kept pace with this development—indeed, has been a primary factor in bringing it about.

.... This, certainly, is the logical medium for the advertiser who looks beyond the "horse-and-buggy" trade boundaries.

—Today

As William McChesney Martin, Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, has said,

"The improvement of transportation has made of a territory, not a city with sub-centers and a country, but the whole territory a city."

—and here

is the familiar map of just such a "city plus."

This is St. Louis' market—known as The 49th State.

Highways and railroads and interurbans have extended the radius to 150 miles.

Luncheon Toasts.

It is easier to make a cheese toast than a Welsh rarebit, and you can get about the same effect. Many people buy such a toast—one slice, I believe—at a nice place for 50 cents an order, and with a beverage, consider it an adequate luncheon. At home it will cost what a slice of bread and about a half ounce of cheese cost, and you can have two slices if you like, and the second does not have to be like the first. One way to make it different is to sprinkle some sugar over it when you put the cheese on the toast, or just the minute you take it up.

Herkimer cheese, cut in slices almost as thin as shavings, or a little thicker if you like, or the latter Old Mountain cheese, will melt easily, so are good for cheese toast or the rarebit either; but there are cheeses that will not melt, perhaps because they are not "full cream," but more likely because they have been ripened for hours only rather than for months.

To make the toast, first toast the bread on one side, the slightly on the other, and then cover with the slices, leaving a little edge of the bread all around so the melted cheese will not run off if you neglect it after placing it under the broiler. But watch it and take it up when it has got well started towards melting, because it is more

Bright Sayings of the Children
The Tribune will pay $5 for each child's saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to accept edges or pictures unsuitable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Auntie Dee, The Tribune, Chicago.
In order to prepare the three year old son for the event, when a second child was expected in the family, he was told that he would soon have a little playmate who would come to live with us.
The second morning after the arrival of the baby daughter, he came to the foot of the stairs and called, "Mother, tell sister to come down and play."
Bobby's uncle, who was in the habit of giving him all the pennies he happened to have, said to Bobby soon after his little sister was born, "Well, Bobby, you now have a little sister to divide your pennies with, and I don't know how to divide them."
Bobby, after pausing for a while exclaimed, "You better give Dotty all the Lincoln pennies cause she'd be scared of the Indians."

The Meekers' invitations to meet the Washington party, were one in wondering just what manner. How large a group of diplomats will be on hand? Charles Deway is here, and Winston? If they are, it will be a reunion of long time. The Richardson is looking for since they moved to Washington, Deway, by the way, was here. And who else, and how? At any rate, whatever the surprise dinner or luncheon with great interest by those who received their invitations.

FRIEND IN NEED

Society Sits Back to Await Queen Marie

BY NANCY R.

Our own grand season having been postponed and officially launched by the opening of opera, the next event on the social calendar is the arrival on Saturday of Rumanian society, and much discussed queen.

Take my word, there's plenty of excitement in the air. Yesterday's mail contained invitations to the reception to be held Saturday evening at the Drake, large engraved invitations from "the reception committee" with Potter's name and business address in the "please reply" corner.

And then, a few minutes later, one of the emissaries of Charles J. Voynick, former Rumanian minister, telephoned to tell me some of the plans for the American-Rumanian society in welcoming the charming Marie.

On Saturday afternoon at half past two she will be met at the city hall by a group of honor men of members of the society, clad in Rumanian costumes, giving her official greeting.

And on Sunday this same enterprising society will hold a reception for her in the grand ballroom at the Congress.

Mr. Voynick is chairman, and serving with him as co-chairmen are Mrs. Clarence Norton Goodwin, while the list of pretty young ladies already lined up to assist at the festivities includes Grace McGinn, Ellen Borden, Glee Viles, Katherine Thomas, Ruth Elting, Sarah Brewster, Jean Linn, Janet Fairbank, Barbara Wendell, Betty Sturges, Catherine Moore, Jean Williams, and Laverne Moore.

As some one said the other day, "After the queen, what?" The answer being, of course, the Army and Navy game. Already hosts and hostesses are making arrangements for the hectic days and evenings of Thanksgiving week, which will be an eventful period for our winter known as the gayest events in the dinner which the Arthur Meekers are to give at the Casino on Friday evening (Nov. 26), before the Barrett Wendell ball.

The Meekers' invitations read, "To meet the Washington Party," and now every one is wondering just what that means. How large a group of young diplomats will be on hand? Will the Charles Dwyers be here, and many others? If they are, it will be a regular reunion of long time friends, for Chicago has missed this popular trio since they moved to Washington. (Mr. Dwyer, by the way, was here yesterday.) And who else, and how many?

At any rate, whatever the surprise, the Meekers' dinner is looked forward to with great interest by those who have received their invitations.

Day's News in Society

A group of the town's beaux has been recruited under the leadership of Melville E. Stone II. to act as a floor committee for the gala opening of the ice hockey matches to take place next Tuesday evening at the Coliseum, the proceeds of which are to go to the Junior League. Miss Blufford Richardson is to head the committee of girls who will sell cigarettes and flowers. Mr. Stone's group includes Adlai Stevenson, Henry Field, Murray Brush, Edna Nicholas, Glitzin, Walter Ross, Clyde Jones, James Otis, Ira L. Couch Jr., Howard Elliott Jr., and Donald McHugh.

The luncheon hostesses at the Blackstone yesterday morning after the first luncheon musical of the season included Mrs. Leroy A. Goddard, Mrs. Clyde Day, Mrs. Orville Thompson, Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. Frederic W. Upham, Mrs. Theodore Dickinson, Mrs. William J. Chalmers, Mrs. Everett Wynn, and Mrs. Moise Dreyfus.

The fortnightly is to give a dinner on Friday evening for Sir Frederick Wynn of London, England. He is to speak on "The Political Awakening of Asia."

Miss Winifred Smith and Miss Emily Galt are to depart today for the east, to be gone a week. They are to motor from New York City to Princeton on Saturday for the Yale-Princeton football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald T. Naugle of Lake Shore drive and their daughter, Miss Jane Allen Naugle, have returned from a two months' trip abroad. Miss Naugle, who is chairman of the doll booth for the St. Christopher's bazaar, to take place on Dec. 2, has brought back a dozen dolls from Paris, Nice, Cannes, Rome, and Naples.

Mrs. Alfred H. Granger and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Edward Brown Jr. of Lake Forest, are in New York City for a week's sojourn. Mrs. Granger is to return tomorrow, and Mrs. Brown is expected next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Revell of East Walton place are in New York City for a brief stay.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Nov. 9. (Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden Whitehouse, who were at the Ritz-Carlton, have departed by automobile for Middleburg, Va.

Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson of 15 East 43rd street has arrived after several months' absence in France and England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick Vanderbilt, who have returned from Europe, are at 15 East 49th street before leaving into an apartment they have bought at 350 East 57th street.

The countess of Granard gave a dinner and dance tonight at the home of her daughter, Ogden Mills.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: A Law for Lawyers

Mrs. Stotesbury and Her Jewels Magnet for All Eyes at Opera

The sensation created at the opera opening, night before last, by the appearance of Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, glittering with her magnificent array of emeralds and diamonds, was repeated last evening when she arrived wearing a second diadem and an entire change of jewels. Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson were hosts to the Stotesburys and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chalmers, with whom they are visiting.

Mrs. Stotesbury was in black velvet spattered with diamonds designs. Her ropes of pearls numbered five, four of them hanging from a mammoth bow-knot of diamonds, and she also wore a dog collar of large diamonds. The radiant diadem was set in the center with an oblong gem about two inches in length and half as wide, from which a pear shaped stone reared itself aloft.

Mrs. Simpson was wearing white satin heavily beaded in pearls, and Mrs. Chalmers wore white brocade, a head ornament of brilliant, and several strands of pearls. This box party remained in its seats during the entire act, but numerous friends passed the two detectives at the door to visit within.

Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick's box was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne Donnelly, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamline Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Stern were in the P. Edson White box.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Reynolds had with them Mr. and Mrs. John Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Powell, and Harold H. Powell. With the Hale Hoidens were Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott. A group of art students were in the William H. McIlvaine box.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark W. Trude were entertaining Judge and Mrs. Daniel P. Trude, Miss L. Dick, and J. S. Merrill. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Donahue were Mr. and Mrs. William M. Donahue, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Chapline.

With Mr. and Mrs. Jule F. Brower were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bauman, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tyler. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Peabody were Mrs. William Hale Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wills.

Mr. and Mrs. John Borden had with them Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cable and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Armour. Mr. and Mrs. George A. McKillop, Miss Muriel McCormick and Arthur Heun were with Mr. and Mrs. Augustus S. Peabody.

Cortot and Sophie Braslau to Give Concert Tonight

Alfred Cortot, chevalier of the Legion of Honor, dean of French pianists, together with Sophie Braslau, former Metropolitan opera star, will launch a series of festival concerts at Orchestra hall tonight with only one other French musician the distinction of having won the gold medal of the London Philharmonic society, has appeared as soloist with the foremost American orchestra. He won his decoration in the world war for his rehabilitation work among the disabled.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9. (Special.)—Mrs. Howell Howard of Dayton, O., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hines of Chicago, who will be matron of honor at the wedding of Miss Eleanor Preston Davies and Thomas Patton Cheesborough Jr. on Thursday afternoon, arrived in Washington yesterday. She had the bridal party at luncheon today at Wardsman Park hotel. Her two brothers, Ralph and John Hines of Chicago, who will be ushers at the wedding, gave a dinner for the bridal party this evening. Mrs. Hines and her two sons arrived in Washington last evening.

Senator Charles S. Deneen has returned to Washington and is at the Willard. Senator and Mrs. Deneen gave up their apartment at 2023 Connecticut avenue in the early summer. He will join Mrs. Deneen in Chicago later in the week.

Big Sisters Charity Ball.

The Big Sisters will hold their fifth annual Armistice eve charity ball at the Drake this evening. Mrs. John F. Hines is chairman of the box committee.

"French Say, Harmony of Parts Makes Beauty of the Whole."

Too Much Sameness Is the Trouble with the American Bob

After a six weeks' sojourn in Paris, where much time was spent investigating the trend of women's fashions and the quality of beauty interests, I can say with finality that there is no sign yet that bobbed hair is going out.

You hear much more about its early demise on this side of the water than on the other. There is a reason for the difference. In Paris I think I can say with finality that it is the exceptional short head that is badly cut, that it is the exceptional bob that is perfectly done, but that would be a sweeping statement. I will not say so. You see more well done heads here than abroad than you see here among the same number of women.

Why it should be so I can explain only by the innate artistry of the Parisian hairdresser and the same inherent virtue of the French woman. For purposes more than one, I have found that the hairdressers' skill because of the great number of the women observed in and around Paris with beautifully clipped heads were Americans who come to Paris frequently to be turned, a number of these American French cut heads which they cannot get duplicated on this side.

We have here a few good artists, but why should there be more of them? Why don't our beauty parlor specialists go in for improving their styles of clipping? Why do so many of them want to turn every woman into their business mold? It's no trade secret that they have the greatest bob in their business ever known in the amount of money spent in beauty parlors the country over is simply astounding. Every one of them will frankly admit the reason for the boom. But if one of these days it will be dead because they haven't taken enough trouble to make it alive with more skilful, more artistic shaping of hair and heads.

In Paris you see a great deal of individuality in the short haired coiffures. You see it in the saleswomen, the waitresses, the clerks, the girls, the eventful undos of the American. And that, I believe, is the reason one hears on the other side of the water will survive and why women here won't let it if they hadn't better let their hair grow.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

SKINNY: SOME PEOPLE ARE just naturally thin and remain so as long as they live. If you cannot increase your weight after all you have tried, and you feel perfectly fit, you must be one of that class. One thing to be thankful for—you won't be reducing wrinkles which are so prevalent today.

FARM AND GARDEN

Despite the effort by dairymen to produce a higher quality of product for the Chicago market, the city's milk is apparently still being produced at a small profit. Many farmers who are not keeping records are loathe to believe how much they are losing in the business of producing milk.

Out in Du Page and Stevenson counties eight representative farmers who keep records in cooperation with the State Agricultural College, list about four cents on every 100 pounds of milk produced with 138 cows last year, according to K. T. Wright, who has just made a study of the records at Urbana.

Wright says it cost the farmers $22.762 to keep the 138 cows during the year, and in return they got only $22.138. The cows produced 1,053,313 pounds of milk, at an average of 12.18 pounds each, at an average net cost of $2.18 a hundred pounds, which was about 4 cents more than it sold for. Even greater loss would be expected in poorer herds, for the average production of these cows is considered high.

Feed costs for 100 pounds of milk varied from $1 to $1.98; man labor costs ranged from $1 to 94 cents, which shows that in farmers could improve upon their feeding and others might reduce the time they spend on the cows, Wright points out.

Cat Meat.

One afternoon I brought a girl friend home from school with me. She was rather hungry so I went into the kitchen to make some sandwiches. I found some cold roast pork on the table and with this I made some. My friend told me she thought they were good.

A little while later my mother came downstairs and said to me, "Gladys, what did you do with the meat Mrs. B. sent over for the cat?"

My friend hasn't been over since.
